Board of Aldermen.

A special meeting of the board was held on Thursday night at 7.45 o'clock upon call of the mayor, to consider the matter of location on Boylston street granted the Boston & Worcester Street Railway Company.

Aldermen Chesley, Ensign, Hubbard, Hutchinson, Lothrop, Lowe, Lyman, Mellen, Norris, Pond, Saltonstall, Trowbridge, Weed and Weeks were present when President Baily called to order.

After the business before the board had been stated the rules were unanimously suspended, and the order granting the Boylston street location was reconsidered.

President Baily then stated the wishes of the company as to amendments. The first related to a modification of the important sixth section so that the bond would bind the company to matters included in the bond rather than in the order of location. The lawyers in the board, failed to see the necessity for the change, and Mr. F. C. Hinds for the company could only say that it was desired by their counsel. The amendment was adopted however, although subsequently this vote was reconsidered on motion of Alderman Mellen, who had discovered that there was no time limit mentioned in the bond. The amendment was then refused adoption.

The second amendment desired by the company to limit the half fare to school children to points on its own railway, was believed by the board to be a step towards limiting the transfer system and was defeated.

The third amendment desired, authorizing the company to charge compensation for use of its poles by any other corporation, excepting the city was adopted.

Their request for a modification of the clause prohibiting the use of tracks until the entire street work had been completed was also considered, and an amendment, authorizing the use of such location for construction purposes only was adopted.

The entire order, as above amended was then unanimously adopted, and at 8.35 p. m. the board adjourned.

ENTERTAINMENT CLUB'S VAUDEVILLE.

ELABORATE PROGRAM WILL BE PRESENTED NEXT WEDNESDAY EVENING MAY 8TH IN THE CHANNING CHURCH PARLORS.

A dramatization of Richard Harding Davis' famous Van Bibber story, "Her First Appearance" and which has for its stage name "The Little Girl," is announced as one of the principal attractions at the Entertainment club's vaudeville to be given in the Channing church parlors next Wednesday evening, May 8th. "The Little Girl" is played by the well known professional Robert Hilliard, and is pronounced "a perfect gem" by those who have seen it in New York and Boston. The cast will include Mr. Ernest W. Wright, Miss Marie Grace Wright, Mr. George H. Daniels and Mr. Leverett D. G. Bentley.

Mr. Fred I. Brown, a favorite in this city, will furnish much entertainment with his impersonations and humorous readings. Signor J. W. Doria, of Worcester, another professional, and whose fame as a whistling soloist is widespread both in this country and Europe, will contribute novel and delightful numbers.

A one-act comedy "Rubber Boots," every line of which is laugh-producing, describes the ludicrous predicament of three sisters, whose home is invaded by a "shirt-waist man" of the Weary Willie order. Mrs. Robert E. Mandell, Mrs. Ralph C. Emery, Miss Madeline Dyer and Mr. Leverett Bentley will take part.

The Simmons Brothers are Newton young men of recognized ability. Their feats of prestidigitation and legerdemain are said to be equal to some of the best known magicians for they have received flattering notices wherever they have appeared.

Mr. Ralph W. Angier, who will be remembered as an end-man at the Hunnewell club minstrels, has a budget of funny stories and songs to tickle the risibilities of his audience.

Lovers of genuine southern minstrelsy may look forward to a rare treat in the appearance of Jack Farquhar and Guy Has kell in a first-class cakewalk. This couple "walked" with such ease and grace as to capture the cake at the Hunnewell club minstrels last February.

Mr. Francis P. Lane, a well known professional vaudeville pianist who has been heard at Keith's and for two seasons at Combination Park, will have charge of the music.

Phonographs.

An inferior talking machine with thin rasping records is enough to make a musical distracted. If you are interested in securing a first class instrument with clear and natural toned records, I would be pleased to give you the benefit of several years' experience in handling phonographs, graphophones, etc. Prove my statement by giving me a trial. Call or address F. E. Harwood, 194 Church street, Newton.

Called to Channing Church.

Rev. Adelbert L. Hudson, pastor of the Church of Our Father of Buffalo, N. Y., has been called to Channing Unitarian church, Newton. This action was taken at a meeting of the pew holders held on Monday evening. The salary was set at $4,000 a year.

It is confidently expected that Mr. Hudson will accept and that he will assume his new charge early in the fall in time for the observance of the church's fiftieth anniversary.

Rev. Mr. Hudson was born in Ithaca, N. Y. There he received his early education and later entered a law college in Iowa. After his graduation he was admitted to the bar and practiced law. Soon he received an appointment as district attorney. After a time he removed to Sioux City where he became a member of the Unitarian church and there decided to enter the ministry.

Coming east he entered the Harvard Divinity school and afterwards traveled abroad. A. A. in Salt Lake City was offered him and then he accepted. After two years he went to the church of Our Father at Buffalo to succeed Rev. Thomas R. Slicer, a well known Unitarian divine. The Church of Our Father was for thirty years the pastorate of Rev. G. W. Housner, who was pastor of Channing church, Newton, for six years and Dr. Hornbrook's predecessor.

House Burned at Oak Hill.

The house of William Ball, part of the William Appleton estate on Nahant street, Oak Hill, was destroyed by fire early last Monday morning. There was no water obtainable and the structure was sacrificed to the flames, although the firemen stood helplessly by.

It was about 1:30 a. m., that Mrs. Ball was awakened by the barking of a dog. She wondered at the cause of it, and aroused her husband. They started down stairs to make an investigation when they became aware of large quantities of smoke.

Descending to a front room on the first floor they discovered it in flames. Hastily the other members of the household were aroused and they speedily left the building. Some one sounded fire alarm box 35, situated on the St. John's Industrial school buildings, and the fire apparatus made a quick response considering the distance they had to travel.

It did not take the firemen long to grasp the situation. The only water supply was a pond some distance from the house. The engine was driven towards it, but the wheels sunk in the marshy ground. Water was then 20 feet away but unavailable.

The firemen did all in their power, but they were forced to watch the building consumed.

It is thought the fire started from the explosion of a lamp although the exact cause is not known. The damage is estimated at $5,500. It required five horses to extricate the engine.

Old Soldier's Experience.

M. M. Austin, a civil war veteran, of Winchester, Ind., writes: "My wife was sick a long time in spite of good doctor's treatment, but was wholly cured by Dr. King's New Life Pills, which worked wonders for her health." They always do. Try them. Only 25c at Arthur Hudson's drug store.

HUNNEWELL CLUB.

"Horribly fascinating" will be the title of the picture entitled "To the Tigers," now on exhibition in the smoking room. Its principal features are a partially nude man, clinging with desperation to the side of a stone wall, one hand grasping an iron ring, the other thrust into a crevice between the stones. Directly underneath is an enormous tiger, almost reaching the man, and a half dozen more are grouped in various positions near by. Two are clawing at the breech cloth of the man, which is partially hanging from his body. A fiendish touch is given by one extended foot, and a hand with a knife, reaching down from the top of the wall (which is crowded with humanity), evidently trying to force the hand in the crevice to relinquish its hold. One cannot but admire the skill shown by the artist in depicting the despairing looks of the victim, the sinuous grace of the tigers, and the naturalness of the wall, although few will like the subject.

He Is a Wonder.

All who see Mr. C. F. Collier, of Chero kee, Iowa, as he is now, cheerful, erect, vigorous, without an ache, could hardly believe he is the same man who, a short time ago, had to sit in a chair, propped up by cushions, suffering intensely from an aching back, in agony if he tried to stoop—almost caused by chronic kidney trouble, that no medicine helped till he used Electric Bitters and was wholly cured by three bottles. Positively cures Backache, Nervousness, Loss of Appetite, all Kidney troubles. Only 50c at Arthur Hudson's drug store.

The Legend of Don Munio.

The legend of Don Munio, (text from the Spanish Papers of Washington Irving, and music by Dudley Buck), which is to be given on May 14th, by the Newton Choral Association, is a work of more than ordinary interest, and a sketch of it cannot fail to interest the readers of the GRAPHIC.

In the cloisters of the Ancient Benedictine Convent of San Domingo, at Silos, in Castile, are the mouldering yet magnificent monuments of the once powerful and chivalrous family of Hinojosa. Among these, reclines the marble figure of a knight in complete armour, with the hands pressed together as if in prayer. On the sides of this sepulchral sculptured figures and scenes, now nearly unintelligible except to the eye of the antiquary. The story connected with this tomb is interesting, and in brief, is as follows:

Don Munio Sancho de Hinojosa, was lord of a border castle in Castile and one of the zealous defenders of the Christian faith against the hordes of the Moors, that devastated the southern portion of Spain.

When not engaged in warfare, his delight was to beat up the neighboring forests, and many were the days that he spent in the pursuit of game.

His wife Donna Maria Palacin, was of gentle and timid nature and many tears did the poor lady shed, when he sallied forth upon his daring enterprises.

One day as he was hunting, a cavalcade of Moors came out across the forest lawn, led by a magnificently dressed young cavalier; and by his side rode a young damsel whose veil blown aside by the breeze, displayed a face of surpassing beauty.

Don Munio, gathering his huntsman together, surrounded the Moors, and made them captives. When told the name of his captor, the Moore approached Don Munio, and, saluting him, said, "Don Munio Sancho, I have heard of you for many a true and valiant knight, terrible in arms, but schooled in the noble virtues of chivalry. Such do I trust to find you. In me you behold Abadil, son of a Moorish Alcayde. I am on my way to celebrate my nuptials with this lady, chance has thrown us in your power, but I confide in your magnanimity. Take all our treasure and jewels, demand what ransom you think proper for our persons, but spare us not to be insulted and dishonored."

The good knight was touched at this appeal, and told them that they should celebrate their espousals in his castle as his guests.

On their arrival a royal greeting awaited them, and for fifteen days the bridal couple were entertained in a most magnificent manner, and were then escorted to the border, loaded down with precious gifts.

Several years after, the King of Castile again sounded the call for war, and Don Munio was among the first to obey with his seventy tried and true warriors. Notwithstanding his wife's entreaties, he went, but vowed to her that this would be the last, and when finished he and his seventy, would go on a pilgrimage to the sepulchre of our Lord at Jerusalem.

A great battle was fought on the plains of Salamanra, near to Ucles, where Don Munio fell with his entire company defending his king against the onslaught of the Moors. He fell slain by the hand of the Moorish knight whom he befriended a few years ago.

After the battle they took his body home, where with great solemnities he was laid away to rest. The tale does not end here, for afterward's messenger came from Jerusalem, stating that on a certain day, the day Don Munio was slain, the spirits of him and his brave followers were seen in the Holy sepulcher. Such was Castilian faith in the olden time, which kept its word even beyond the grave.

"Through Thee their combats ended Through Thee fulfilled their vow Their honor, safe defended Is crowned with victory now."

The solo parts in this legend will be taken by the following well known artists: Mrs. Jennie Patrick Walker, soprano; Miss Pauline Woltman, contralto; Mr. Clarence B. Shirley, tenor; Mr. Arthur Beresford, bass. The chorus consists of eighty five voices, coming from Newton and the neighboring towns. Mr. Everett E. Trustee is the conductor of the chorus, and Miss Laura Henry the pianist.

"I wrote Dr. Pierce regarding my case, and received a prompt reply, free."

"I endured nearly four years of suffering," writes Mrs. J. L. Myers, of Washington, W. Va., "caused principally from improper medical attention after the birth of a child, and female weakness, resulting in a complication of diseases. Had a terrible cough and an incessant pain and soreness in lungs. Was reduced in flesh from 184 pounds to about 100 pounds in eighteen months. I had no appetite, and became so weak and nervous I could scarcely sit up. I doctored with our home physicians for two years with no induced to try Dr. Pierce's medicines. I wrote to Doctor Pierce regarding my case, and received a prompt reply, free, advising the proper medicines for my case. After taking four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and four of his 'Golden Medical Discovery,' three doses each day, also taking one bottle of Dr. Pierce's Compound Extract of Smart-Weed and some of his 'Pellets,' I ceased coughing, and am now enjoying splendid health and have gained thirty-five pounds in weight. I again feel like my former self, thanks to Dr. Pierce and his great medicines."

"Decision of Character" is the subject for discussion at the meeting of the West Newton C. E. Society next Sunday evening. Leader, Mr. Edward Lincoln.

A recent missionary meeting of the Golden Rule Society accounts were given of two forms of work to which the Society has contributed, the girls' school at Nanda near Durban, So. Africa and the village school of India.

This week we will tell you some of the ways the "Whatsoever" and "Lead a hand" committees of the Golden Rule Society have found of making themselves indispensable to their church. As the names of these two committees suggest, their work is practically unlimited. Each of the other committees of the Christian Endeavor Societies is at liberty to call upon them when they have extra work, and the pastor considers them his "Aids" for every emergency. These are a few of their endeavors as seen in one church. They have attended to the mailing list of the church paper, mended the chapel carpet, doctored the broken backs of the hymn books, collected and distributed religious and illustrated papers, obtained subscribers for the missionary magazines, had charge of a table in the vestibule of the chapel for the free exchange of papers, and many other like duties. We humbly suggest, "Go thou and do likewise." We will gladly answer any suggestions regarding the work of these committees that may be asked in these columns.

A teachers' art committee appointed from the school teachers in Watertown are preparing an art exhibition for Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week at the Francis school. The Women's Club and the D. A. R. are planning entertainments for the exhibition days, and well known speakers on school room dramatics have been engaged for the evenings. All the proceeds will be used to purchase pictures for school rooms.

"DAVID GARRICK."

ROBERTSON'S FAMOUS COMEDY SUCCESSFULLY GIVEN BY "THE PLAYERS" IN TEMPLE HALL MONDAY AND TUESDAY EVENINGS.

Pretty scenes, bright dialogues and a marked display of good acting combined to furnish an evening of delightful entertainment.

Mrs. Frances Newhall was acting manager and the stage was well handled under Mr. Charles E. Hatfield's direction. The ushers were Messrs. William T. Farley, Charles W. Cole and Mr. Harry L. Burge. The cast:

Mr. Simon Ingot Mr. Edward C. Burroughs
Mr. Smith Mr. William L. Brown
Mr. Brown Mr. Arthur W. Hollis
Mr. Jones Mr. Augustus W. Wakeland

George-Servant of Garrick Mr. Henry L. Fairbrother

Whist.

In commenting upon the war against whist now waging in Waltham, Mr. Fisher Ames writes as follows in the Sunday Post:

"The following item recently appeared in the Post, coupled with the information that the authorities there had 'shut down' on whist playing for the season:

SOME WHIST STATISTICS FROM WALTHAM.
(Unofficial Statistics.)
Number of whist players in town 3,800
Number of regular whist clubs in town 35
Money spent for prizes last year $4,000
Total hours devoted to play 1,400
This is equal to 8 1/2 days
Also equivalent to 22 years 3 1/2 months

Making all due allowances for the reporter's facetiousness, there is plenty of food for thought in the item.

In the first place, it is a pity that so good and highly honorable game as whist should be the medium or excuse for these more or less questionable proceedings—prize games with paid admissions. But it is no doubt selected because of its very respectability.

In and of itself it is an agreeable amusement, furnishing opportunities for the exercise of intellect and of skill, and in reading the hands and using one's cards to the best advantage. It is a pleasant means of arranging a social function, wherein each person has a brief interview with every other person.

When the object of the meeting is a genuine and proper charitable purpose and the prizes are of small value and the players come principally to contribute to the charity, little fault can be found with the method. But, when, as is too often the case, there is no charitable object in view, and the main inducement is the hope of winning something of value, the whole business is thoroughly objectionable. It is no better than it would be to pay 50 cents for a lottery ticket. The whist is practically used to give the affair an air of respectability which does not properly belong to it. This does not show that whist is objectionable, only that this abuse of it is.

The estimate of 3800 whist players in Waltham is probably given as a joke. Thirty-eight would be much nearer correct if it were intended to include only those who really know how to play the game. Still, there are no doubt a good many who play at it, and of these quite a number who are desirous of learning the game. We are always glad to encourage this class, and we hope that the bad name so unjustly given to the game by these gambling whist parties will not discourage their efforts to master the game for its own inherent good qualities.

The game of whist has attracted the interest and study of the very best and greatest minds in England and America for a hundred and fifty years, and is still, and probably will be, popular in spite of occasional degradation to base purposes. If one must play cards for money there are many other games better adapted to that purpose than whist, as for instance, bridge and poker."

For ourselves we do not think Mr. Ames is severe enough. There is a great deal of difference between the real game of whist and the bumblepuppy variety found in these so-called whist parties.

No true whist enthusiast plays whist for the value of the prize. The pleasure of getting every possible trick out of a hand is glory enough for the devotee of this fascinating game.

We notice the names of M. L. Messer, E. C. Fletcher, C. F. Gilman and W. E. Hickox as successful winners for the season of Thursday night matches at the American Whist Club.

PARROT CLUB MINSTRELS.

LARGE AUDIENCE ENJOYED BRILLIANT PERFORMANCE IN NEIGHBORHOOD CLUBHOUSE LAST FRIDAY EVENING.

As the parrot is a rare bird so is a performance by the Parrot Club actors a rare treat. The audience that witnessed its minstrel show in the Neighborhood clubhouse last Friday evening represented one of the most brilliant gatherings of society people that has assembled at an amateur performance in Newton for some time.

Parrot club colors of red and green were displayed all over the house. The shirt-fronts of the chorus members were adorned with green and red ribbons, while the endmen wore dazzling suits of the same hues. After the curtain first parted and the opening chorus began, then there came the advent of a parrot, which was "only a bird in a wicker cage." From this point there was laughter and applause unlimited.

Mr. Benjamin S. Palmer was interloper. On the ends were W. B. C. Fox, Horace C. Pratt and C. E. Billings with the bones, and E. Stanley Nichols, Thomas E. Stutson and H. S. Tripp, with the tambourines. The program:

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Fourteen Years of Suffering.

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh. Edgar, of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to be around but constantly suffered. I tried everything I could hear of and at last I was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it is not again returned. Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by all druggists.

Death of Chester H. Graves.

Chester Hatch Graves, for more than half a century a well known Newton resident and a prominent distiller of Boston, died Monday afternoon at his residence on Hovey street after a week's illness, aged 83 years. Death was due to heart failure superinduced by peritonitis.

Mr. Graves was born in Sunderland, Franklin county, Mass., June 5, 1818. He was the son of a farmer and the youngest of seven children.

Mr. Graves left Sunderland to come to Boston in 1844. He entered the employ of Seth W. Fowle, manufacturer of patent medicines, and soon was advanced to the position of bookkeeper. After five years service there he became bookkeeper for John T. Heard. The latter's distillery was located in Chatham street, Boston, known at that time as Distillhouse Sq.

In 1861 Mr. Heard retired and was succeeded by Mr. Graves. About 30 years ago Mr. Graves suffered a painful carriage accident, by which he lost the use of his right leg, and since that time many of his business duties have been in charge of his sons.

Fifty-three years ago Mr. Graves moved with his family to Newton. He was never in public life but had a deep interest in Newton which was but sparsely settled upon his coming here. Mr. Graves attended the Channing church of which he was a staunch supporter.

His wife's death occurred in May 1891. The surviving members of the family are two sons, Mr. Edward C. Graves and Mr. George A. Graves, and a daughter, Mr. William H. Emerson.

Funeral services were held at 3 Wednesday afternoon at the family residence, Rev. Dr. Hornbroke officiated and there was singing by the Albion quartet. Many relatives, friends and business associates were present together with a representative of Royal Arch chapter of Newton and Dalhousie lodge F. & A. M., of which Mr. Graves was a member. The remains were taken to the Newton cemetery for interment.

Werner-Turner.
In the church of the Messiah, Auburn, Wednesday evening, took place the wedding of Miss Helen Thayer Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Turner of that place and Mr. Harold Halliwell Werner of New York.

The church was decorated with a profusion of palms, potted plants and white lilies.

The ceremony was performed at 8 by Rev. John Matteson, rector of the church. The bride was given away by her father. She was handsomely gowned in white crepe de chine, trimmed with duchesse lace and carried lilies of the valley. Her tulle veil was caught up with a sprig of orange blossoms. The maid of honor was Miss Margaret H. Sater of Boston, who wore white muslin with a pink sash. She carried bride's roses. There were no bridesmaids. The best man was Mr. Edward Simmons Hall of New York, and the ushers were Mr. Edward P. Hatch of Newtonville, Mr. Young of Dorchester, Mr. Harry L. Rothenburg of Boston, Mr. Harold Morse Cummings of Roxbury, Mr. Harold Young of Dorchester and Mr. Gordon E. Marble of Cambridge.

There was a reception from 8:30 to 10 to the relatives and a few near friends, following the ceremony at the home of the bride at the corner of Grove and Central streets.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Werner will make their home at Mt. Vernon, N. Y., after a tour.

Card.
Mrs. F. Harrington wishes to express her grateful thanks to the friends who were so kind in her recent affliction caused by the sudden death of her brother Roland Smith, and also to his associates who sent the beautiful floral tributes.

THE BOROFSKI BILL.

The public has been more or less agitated recently over the passage by the lower branch of the Legislature of a bill designed to allow the Jews to keep open store on Sundays.

From long experience with legislative bodies we conclude that the reasons which governed the large majority in favor of the bill must be at least theoretically sound. We are informed that the amendment drawn by Representative Dana, limiting the trade on Sunday to persons of the Jewish faith, was the determining factor in securing a favorable vote.

The only justifiable criticism therefore seems limited to the practical effect of this amendment, in case the bill becomes a law. In this connection the observations of Mrs. Simkhovitch, as given in the GRAPHIC of last week upon the tendency towards lack of religion in the descendants of Jewish immigrants, has considerable weight.

This is the danger then to be feared in letting down the bars of prohibition of Sunday trading. The irreligious Jew, so to speak, will endeavor to over reach his more upright countrymen and neighboring Christians. The latter will soon fall into similar methods, and will prove to be the beginning of what will eventually become a "Chicago" Sunday.

VOTING MACHINES.

In answer to the request of the Legislators the Supreme Court has sent in its opinion of the legality of the use of voting machines at our state elections. Three judges, including Chief Justice Holmes, are agreed that such use is legal, three are opposed and Judge Loring gives a qualified consent. Judge Loring will favor their use provided the recording of the vote cast can be supervised by the voter, and the adding up of the votes is under the direction of the election officers.

Under the present system the voter cannot see that his vote is recorded and we fail to see the necessity for such action when done by machinery.

We hope that the General Court will authorize their use. Every argument is in favor of their adoption, and the force of a recount is wholly prevented.

MEDICAL INSPECTION OF SCHOOLS.

An effort is to be made by the School Committee and the Educational Association to obtain an appropriation from the city government, to allow the Health Dept. to make a daily inspection of schools.

While admitting the possible value of such inspection, we do not believe that the conditions of home life of school children in the Garden City of Newton at the present time, will justify the aldermen in adopting the expensive methods of large metropolitan cities like Boston and New York.

City Hall Notes.

Sixteen sets of plans for the proposed 6-room Thompsonville school house have been submitted by as many architects in the open competition.

Before the assessors started out Mayor Pickard had a long conference with them.

The action taken by the aldermen last night was primarily intended to extend the time for acceptance of the Boylston street location by the Boston & Worcester Street Railway Co.

The street commissioner will receive bids for concrete until Tuesday.

The street department is busily engaged in resurfacing Exeter street, Vista avenue, and in widening Washington street at the Lower Falls. Work on Maple street and Chestnut road, and a drain in Elliot street are completed.

The sewer division is at work in the Hemlock Gorge Reservation on a main sewer to Elliot street.

Street Railways.

The Newton Street Railway company is to build a new car house on upper Main street, Waltham, beside the present one. Work on the new structure will be commenced at once and the buildings will be similar to the present one. The new car house will be 101 feet in length by 70 feet in width, and will cost $10,000. The building is about a quarter as large as the company may ultimately build. The contract for building the car house has been awarded to H. M. Gragg.

The Newton Street Railway company has two new ten bench open, and five vestibule box cars now under contract, and expects to receive them during the coming month.

The Wood Avenue line is now open and is the regular route for the Auburndale-Waterdown line.

Lasell Notes.

On Saturday last Mrs. Mabel C. Loomis lectured on Home Sanitation, her especial theme for the day being the plumbing of the home, and how to secure its efficiency.

The work of Lasell's experiment, nation is also in the capable hand of Mrs. Loomis. The work aims to introduce the student to the practical duties of the home in regard to the cooking and serving of meals, and to do this in such a way as to reduce to a minimum all waste of time, energy and material, by giving such wise and helpful supervision and training as shall make the learner really the mistress of her kitchen, and capable of being at need the instructor of her maids. The members of the class perform in turn the duties of housekeeper, waitress, and cook, have bona fide marketing expeditions into Boston, and keep accounts, moreover they all seem heartily to enjoy the work.

Usual symphony party on Saturday evening.

The Faculty gave on the same evening a reception to the juniors and specials and their friends: Miss Austin, Miss Chase, and Dr. Gallagher receiving the guests. Refreshments were served in the dining room, and at this time Miss Hamilton and Miss Wheldon favored the company with vocal solos, and Mrs. Blanche C. Martin gave several short recitations.

On Sunday afternoon the Lasell missionary society held its monthly meeting, the topic of the hour being missionary work in Africa. The proceeds of the missionary entertainment of the previous week $50, it was voted to present to the Hull street medical mission, in which the society is especially interested, a smaller sum was additionally voted to the work in Mexico.

On Sunday evening the school assembled in the gymnasium for an hour's enjoyment of music. Miss Hamilton sang several solos, and the school a number of songs in chorus, to the music of organ and piano.

On the evening of May 1st the girls of the sophomore class entertained the rest of the school at a May dance in the gymnasium. On Tuesday evening a party heard Miss Leonard Jackson, violinist, play at the Waltham musical club, Asbury Temple, Waltham.

On the evening of May 9th at 8 o'clock Mr. Charles Malloy will lecture on Emerson. Friends are welcome.

One of the most enjoyable entertainments of the season was given last evening by Miss Frances Eaton of Boston who read her original character sketches in monologue consisting of "Two points of view, and the school a number of songs in chorus, to the music of organ and piano. Nora Flynn's first visit to an Intelligence office: Old Aunt Phyllis' spectacles": for an encore St. Patrick's day in rhyme with the school accompaniment afforded a pleasurable ending to a thoroughly unique entertainment.

High School Notes.

The Girls' Drill last Saturday was a success in every way, and the seats and available room being filled. All the members came in for hearty applause. Especially noticeable perhaps were the Indian Club and Drill girls, which were executed with snap and precision truly remarkable. In the company drills Co. A, Miss Rand captain, won the first prize, a silver cup presented by the members of the basketball team. At the close of the drill the officers of the battalion were fairly deluged with flowers by fervent admirers. Dancing followed and lasted until 6 o'clock. The band is to be greatly commended for its good work.

The game scheduled to be played with Cambridge last Friday afternoon was played owing to the failure of the Cambridge team to appear.

Saturday of this week the Interscholastic Tennis tournament will take place at Harvard.

Sixty three books have been bought by the proceeds from Mr. George's lectures during the last year, making the total amount of catalogue books 171.

Last Monday afternoon Harvard '04 played Newton at Soldiers' Field and defeated them by the score of 23 to 2.

Thursday afternoon of this week Newton played the Alumni '90 at the N. A. M. The next game takes place next Monday with Somerville High.

Thursday the seniors and juniors debated on "Co-Education."

The Twentieth Century.

The advent of the new century is to be commemorated by the Newton GRAPHIC in the publication of a handsomely bound volume, entitled, "Newton, The Garden City of the Commonwealth, 1874-1901." It will contain valuable and interesting historical matter, fully illustrated with half tone engravings of churches, schools, residences street views, parks, etc. The history will tell of leading events, characters and progress of the city, and the many advantages of Newton as a beautiful and desirable place of residence will be fully shown. The volume will also contain the portraits and biographies of representative men who, in their lives, their work or their influence have made Newton of today the garden city of the Commonwealth and of New England.

It is believed that such a work will come itself to the citizens of Newton as bringing together a carefully collated record of the lives of men who have contributed to the welfare of our city; men of whom we are justly proud as educators, lawyers, physicians, clergymen and men of affairs.

Such a publication at this time will give to the present, an up to date account of the city and will begeth to the future a legacy of what Newton was at the beginning of what promises to be a most remarkable century.

Daughters of 1812.

The Mass. Society United States Daughters of 1812 has had for its object since its organization in 1897, the restoration of the frigate Constitution. The plan proposed is to restore the old ship as she was in the days of the war of 1812, to have her stationed permanently at Boston to be used as a training ship for naval apprentices. A certificate is given to all who subscribe 25 cents to the fund. It has a seal bearing date of the society's incorporation and a picture of the ship and the seal is in the center. Any one sending twenty-five certificates will receive free a large photograph of Marshall Johnson's famous painting of the frigate Constitution, a valuable gift to schools. Applications for certificates must be accompanied by cash and full name and address of subscribers that it may appear correctly, and may be sent to Mrs. D. A. Sargent, 507 Centre street, Newton.

As a matter of record we print the act of Congress which resulted largely from the active interest shown by Sec. John D. Long in the appeal of Mass. Daughters of 1812. An act for the preservation of the frigate Constitution. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that the secretary of the navy is hereby authorized to place the frigate Constitution, now lying in the Boston navy yard as near as may be consistent with her preservation in the same condition as regarding her hull and rigging as she was when in active service, provided that before beginning on such work a sufficient sum of money to complete a work shall be raised through the agency of the Mass. State Society United States Daughters of 1812 and placed at his disposal for the purpose.

Passed and approved by President McKinley, Feb. 14, 1900.

Much patriotic enthusiasm is being aroused by this undertaking. At the annual meeting of the Mass. Daughters of the Revolution it was resolved:—That the society of Daughters of the Revolution Commemorative fund should indorse the movement to rebuild the United States frigate Constitution and that it be desirable that individual members of the society shall assist by all means in their power in this great patriotic work.

Newton Centre Fire Causes $2,000 Loss

Fire broke out shortly after 9 last Saturday morning in the three-story wooden building situated at 17, 19 and 21 Cypress street, Newton Centre, starting in a large shed in the basement used for the storage of hay. The exact cause has not yet been determined, but it is believed that boys playing with matches were responsible for it. An alarm was rung in from box 75 at 9:25.

On the second and third floors there are four apartments occupied by Messrs. R. T. Taffe, policeman; J. J. Griffin, Loring B. Edwards, fire department employee and George Perkins, fire engineer.

The lower part of the building is occupied by Mr. F. W. Dorr, as a grain and hay loft. Mr. Dorr sustained the heaviest loss. The Taffe tenement was considerably burned, though all valuables were removed in safety. Mrs. Taffe suffered a painful injury and Mr. Taffe had his eyebrows and mustache singed.

An old Landmark Gone.

The double tenement house on Elliot street at the head of Oak street in the Upper Falls which has been pulled down this week to make room for a brick business and tenement block, was built between the years 1760 and 1770 by Mr. Thomas Parker, a mill owner in the village, and was occupied by Mr. Enoch Davenport, who married Mr. Parker's daughter, Priscilla, about the year 1768 or 69. His son, Joseph Davenport, born August 18, 1773, was the next occupant and lived there until he built him a cottage house on West side of Chestnut street nearly opposite the Methodist meeting house, after his house was burnt July 25, 1843, he removed to Cambridge.

Mr. Charles Davenport of the firm of Davenport & Bridges, the celebrated railway car builders of Cambridgeport, was a son of Joseph Davenport, and born in the old house May 25, 1812. He is still living, enjoying good health and makes his home with sons in Watertown. When my father purchased his present lot, now belonging to the "Stone Institute" in 1829, the old Parker, Davenport house was included in the purchase, and has since remained in the Davenport family.

The small tenement house standing next to the Parker building was built by the late Otis Pettie for a grocery and dry goods store in 1835. It was made over into a tenement house in 1841. OTIS PETTIE.

As will be seen by the above the threshers were able to keep on with their work without losing a single day's time. You should keep a bottle of this Remedy in your home. For sale by all druggists.

Pan-American Exposition.

With a liberality which characterizes all enterprises undertaken by Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, the founder of the World's Dispensary, he has established a free bureau of information and assistance, free to visitors and householders.

The purpose of this Bureau is to provide a headquarters for visitors to the Exposition, where mail may be addressed and delivered. To furnish conveniences for correspondence, such as writing desks, stationery, etc. To provide a list of desirable accommodations for guests which will obviate the tiresome search for lodgings in a strange city. To give information concerning Buffalo and the adjacent points of interest, in order that the visitors may do their sight-seeing with economy of time and money. To help visiting friends in any way consistent with the proposed scope of the Bureau.

The question of where are you going to lodge is of prime importance and should be settled first of all. Have all mail, telegrams and parcels sent in care of the Bureau, if you wish. Whooping Cough.

A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children. I do not intend to use this remedy with my oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops.—JESSIE PINKLEY HALL, Springfield, Ala. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Macular Parker Company.

The methods of selling clothing during the fifty years of the life of this house have changed quite as much as the fashion and cut of garments; and to meet the modern idea of show windows we have sacrificed the marble front of our building—with its historic associations, ante-dating the great fire of 1872—and have replaced it with one of glass and metal, giving the necessary windows for display of merchandise, as shown in the above engraving.

We invite the attention of discriminating purchasers to our Spring stock of Men's and Boys' Clothing and Furnishings, now complete.

Know that in spite of hard work in the clear forest air the blood often becomes impure. The heavy food served in the lumber camps is to a great extent responsible for this condition of the blood, which renders the body an easy prey to many forms of disease. There is no better blood purifier than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures eruptions, pimples, eczema, scrofula, rheumatism, and other diseases caused by an impure condition of the blood. It cures absolutely and altogether by cleansing the blood from the poisons which breed and feed disease.

Accept no substitute for the "Discovery." There is no other medicine "just as good" for the blood.

"I will forever thank you for advising me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes Mrs. James Murphy, of Fond du Lac, Wis., "for it has cured me of chronic scrofula of twelve years' standing. I also had chronic diarrhea for twelve years. I am in good health now—better than I ever was in my life, owing to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took several bottles of the 'Discovery' before I stopped."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, containing 1008 pages, and over 700 illustrations, is sent free on receipt of stamps to defray expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper cover, or 31 cents for the book in cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Hearing on Benefits of Daily Medical Inspection in the Public Schools.

No Objection Against Location of Wellesley and Boston's Tracks in Waban—Plans for New Police Station.

At the regular meeting of the aldermen last Monday evening, every member was present but President Bailey. Vice-president Weeks being in the chair.

A hearing was first held upon the construction of a concrete sidewalk on Ripley street under the betterment law. No one appeared and the hearing was closed.

The mayor transmitted a communication from Chief of Fire Department Randlett requesting an immediate appropriation for horses. Referred to finance committee.

The nomination of George W. Linnehan as a Weigher of coal and hay was confirmed.

The belated proclamation of Gov. Crane assigning April 27th as Arbor day was placed on file.

The invitation of Chas. Ward Post 62, G. A. R. to participate in exercises of Memorial Day was accepted.

PETITIONS.

Petitions of the Gas Co. for pole locations on Howard street, Auburndale avenue, and Walnut street; and of the Telephone Co. for location on Somerset road, relocation on Watertown street, and attachments on Wolcott park, Waverly avenue and Han, cook street were referred to the street light committee and hearings assigned for May 17th at 7.45 p. m. Petitions of Taber et al for street lights on Reservoir avenue, Ward et al on Ballard street, Burton et al on Grant street; Clayton et al, Rustie street; and Fisher et al, California street were referred to same committee.

Petitions of McGowan et al for widening of High street; Pettie et al remonstrating against street watering on Chestnut street, Ward 5; McAdams et al for curbing on Lowell avenue; Thomas Johnson relative to condition of North Prospect street, and of Newton et al for widening of Hammond brook were referred to the highway committee, and a hearing assigned on the last petition at the next meeting of the committee.

A Dudley Dowd was granted a license as an auctioneer.

Petitions of Margaret H. Croly, Elizabeth Lee, and Elizabeth J. Ryan for intelligence office licenses; of S. Kershaw, L. E. Bow, and George E. Lovell for common victuallers licenses; of the Newton Club for licenses for 3 billiard tables, 2 pool tables and 3 bowling alleys; of Valente Paulo, Orazio Colalunga and Antonio Marchelletti for street musician licenses; of W. C. Shearer for 3 wagons; C. H. Shelant, 2 wagons, Wm. Brumby 1 wagon, Martin J. J. Wagon, Morris Greenwald for junk license and a protest of Newton junk dealers against granting certain junk licenses were referred to the license committee.

HEARINGS.

At 8 o'clock hearings were opened upon petitions of the Wellesley & Boston Street Railway Co. for locations on Beacon and Chestnut streets, Waban, and of 50 legal voters in aid of same. President J. V. French of the company explained the desire of the road to serve this district and stated that arrangements had been made with the Commonwealth avenue road by which his company could run through cars from Lower Falls to Chestnut Hill and the street ready to build at once.

Mr. L. H. Bacon believed the road would be a great accommodation to Waban, and elicited from Mr. French the fact that no transfers were granted on school tickets of one half fare. Mr. Bacon then said that as all the Newton companies were practically one, he thought it practical to arrange for transfers on school tickets. He also believed that the Crafts street conditions should be repeated in granting this location; and that Beacon street, a main thoroughfare, should be widened now for future double tracks. Mr. Wm. C. Strong detailed the efforts of Waban to obtain street railway facilities and believed this to be an opportune time to widen the streets for a street railway. He offered to give the necessary amount of his frontage on Chestnut street. The hearing was then closed.

At the hearing upon petition of the mayor and street commissioner for alterations of tracks of Wellesley and Boston Street Railway Co. to meet the widening of Washington street, Lower Falls. President French stated that this was one of the hardships a public service corporation had to meet, and that they were willing to make the alterations under the original conditions of location, and had, in fact, already ordered their material. Hearing closed.

MEDICAL INSPECTION OF SCHOOLS.

At the hearing assigned for 8.15 o'clock upon petition of Newton Educational Association for daily medical inspection of schools, a communication from the Board of Health favoring the project for contagious diseases only was first read.

Mr. D. C. Heath then stated that the subject had been carefully considered by his association for over a year, and had conferred with the School and Health boards. He believed that the people wanted it and that the poorest school house should be as wholesome as the best home. He thought the cost would be about $2000 per year or $100 per school and explained the method pursued in Boston. Letters were read from Boston school masters endorsing the system. As a matter of pride Mr. Heath hoped that Newton would take favorable action before Somerville or Brookline.

Supt. Field also favored the idea and believed it a matter sure to be adopted. He thought it wise to grant a moderate appropriation and give it a trial. He called attention to the numerous epidemics in the various school districts and believed that the school should be a disseminator of disease. Mr. Field was emphatic in his assertion that the inspection would save children's lives.

Mr. C. F. Shirley quoted a few statistics and spoke in favor of the appropriation. The hearing was then closed and the matter referred to the finance committee.

Claim of Anne Grant for injuries received from a defective highway was referred to the claims committee.

Petitions of Mills et al that city accept and maintain a bath house at Upper Falls was referred to the public property committee.

The following reports were received: From the finance committee, approving awards for sewer takings near Virginia road and recommending grant of $50 for carriages.

From the highway committee favorable to sidewalk construction on Willow street and to a crosswalk on Hunnewell avenue.

Elmwood, Eldredge and Church streets; and favorable to street lights on Beacon street and Tanglewood road.

The following reports were accepted: From the highway committee recommending leave to withdraw on laying out of Avondale road, after explanation by Alderman Lothrop.

From the street light committee recommending leave to withdraw on petition for street lights on Sylvan avenue.

From the finance committee favorable to granting licenses to Hibernian Fire and Drum Corps to parade; to F. L. Richardson & Co. for 6 carriages; to C. H. Majority reports favorable to granting 4 pool tables to Green Cox and 3 pool tables to Sanderson & Polly; and recommending leave to withdraw on petition of Mrs. Angus McDonald for an Innholder's license.

RECEDES.

A recess for ten minutes was then taken to allow meetings of the highway, sewer and finance committees and upon reassembling, reports of the highway and finance committees favorable to appropriation of $200 for widening High street; and from the finance committee favorable to $500 for purchase of horses for fire department were received.

ORDERS.

The following orders were then adopted: Making awards for sewer takings near Virginia road; granting $50 for carriages for board of aldermen, authorizing crosswalk on Hunnewell avenue, authorizing sidewalks on Willow street, and Ripley street, authorizing sidewalk on Ripley street under betterment act; accepting terms of Metropolitan Park commission for sewer construction in Henlock Gorge, changing tracks of Wellesley and Boston Street Railway Co. in Washington street, Lower Falls; granting N. E. Tel. and Tel. Co. attachments on Allison street and locations on Brookside avenue; granting N. & W. Gas Co. attachments on Waverly avenue, Park, Elmwood, Eldredge and Church streets; authorizing street lights on Beacon street and Tanglewood road; assigning hearings May 20 on taking a side child in as Hicks street, in Elmora street, in Chaska avenue, in Owatona street and in Grey Birch terrace; appropriating $200 for land damages in widening High street and appropriating $500 for purchase of horses for fire department.

An order authorizing plans and proposals for new police station on Washington street, Ward 1, was adopted after speeches by Aldermen Wood, Hubbard, and Fisher. And at 10.12 o'clock the board adjourned.

Through an inadvertence the name of Alderman Stickleby was omitted from the record of members present at the special meeting held on Thursday, May 2.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Fourteen Years of Suffering.

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh Edgar, of Germantown, Pa. "I was able to be around and about my duties, but everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved of my pain. I am now cured. I am happy to say it has not since returned. Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by all druggists."

Vacation Schools.

The following extracts from the report of the last year's work of the vacation school committee of the Newton Centre Woman's Club will be of interest:

"The committee set out to do what no other vacation school committee had yet done—to provide a school for all classes of children, where the very richest could find employment, as well as the most needy. This was founded upon principle—the principle that a rich man's child is as unfortunate as a poor man's idle child. Idleness is pernicious and deteriorating, both mentally and morally, for as long a time as our vacation schools. Another principle was of a more subtle nature, but none the less actual. The work of our public schools is almost purely contemplative in its nature. The children are forced to accommodate to the conditions of the outlet except the little that can come by writing, drawing and the bit of sloyd work. Your committee set out to provide a place where these same children could produce something of their own. Why not was to put some of their store into activity, to materialize some of their thoughts."

"These principles determined the courses of study. The work must be with the hands, must be something that would require the use of the children's own brains. It was also decided to give the children their choice of work. No other vacation school does this. The children were to choose their own work. The work was to be of a more subtle nature, but none the less actual. The work of our public schools is almost purely contemplative in its nature. The children are forced to accommodate to the conditions of the outlet except the little that can come by writing, drawing and the bit of sloyd work. Your committee set out to provide a place where these same children could produce something of their own. Why not was to put some of their store into activity, to materialize some of their thoughts."

"The work in sloyd was very popular. Ninety seven pupils were enrolled. There was an average of nearly 19 in attendance. All have had the privilege of having seen these boys and girls with their hands on some of those days when the mercury was not far from 100 degrees. Not one of them was ill from it. It was an inspiration to be in the room. One caught a note of the joy that comes from creative work."

"Descending the stairs you found yourself in the feminine atmosphere before you were off the last step. Boys and girls were quietly getting themselves into uniforms. Conservatism met you at once. All was quiet and order here. The whole place breathed of woman and her way of doing things in this world. Cooking is more than simply making a few dishes. Obedience to fixed laws is the reigning principle, and every act that points to obedience assists in the results from cooking and cooking trains for obedience."

"The vacation school was very popular with the children. It formed a common meeting-place. It was somewhere to go; something to do. Not the least of the influence for good was the fact that, voluntarily, the most favored came to work with the most restricted."

Your boys and girls made many others work with them. It was a fine thing, and the boys and girls rose to the height of it in their bearing one with another. It was a lesson, early in their lives, of brotherliness and sisterliness."

The entire cost of the vacation school work was $718.42. The basement and a few rooms of the Rice school were provided free by the city.

The vacation school committee for the coming season is as follows: Mrs. E. R. Benton, chairman; Mrs. W. E. Norton, secretary; Mrs. F. C. Hatch, treasurer; Mrs. F. C. Rising, assistant treasurer; Mrs. Elizabeth Armitage, Mrs. A. E. Alvord, Mrs. A. L. Brackett, Mrs. Nelson Brooks, Mrs. Herbert Clark, Mrs. Lyman W. King, Mrs. W. M. Mick, Mrs. A. K. Pratt, Mrs. G. A. Shaw, Mrs. S. A. Shannon, Mrs. H. N. Smith and Mrs. B. E. Taylor.

FINE FRONT FOR A GREAT STORE.

MACULAR PARKER COMPANY KEEPING AHEAD OF THE TIMES IN ARCHITECTURAL AS IN OTHER STYLES.

(From the Boston Globe.)

Modern requirements in business have led to a change in one of the most prominent landmarks on Washington street, the white granite front of the store of the Macular Parker company, at No. 400, near the corner of Summer street. This front was the only one in the great district burned in the fire of 1872 that remained standing, and it served as a bulwark to check the flames in their course toward the west side of Washington street, below Summer, and perhaps on Tremont street.

After the fire it was moved back 12 feet, on the widening of Washington street, and the present Macular Parker building was erected behind it.

Old Bostonians whose memories extend back to the early '90s remember this front as one of the most elegant and substantial of its period, and it has remained a monument to its builders to the present time. This gives the front a thoroughly up-to-date and elegant appearance, while the style in which the changes have been made is in keeping with the dignity and high tone of the whole establishment.

The work has been progressing some months, and is now completed. A heavy steel girder holds up the front of the building where the stone pillars stood, and the entire ground floor front has been filled with plate glass set in nickel, while the interior of the show windows has been remodeled and finished in white mahogany. This gives the front a thoroughly up-to-date and elegant appearance, while the style in which the changes have been made is in keeping with the dignity and high tone of the whole establishment.

The windows are much better adapted than were the old ones to the display of men's, youths' and boys' clothing and furnishings, for which this house is famous.

Mrs. James M. Gordon.

By the death of Mrs. James M. Gordon of Aburndale, Newton loses one of her earliest and oldest residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon removed from Boston and made their home in Aburndale nearly forty-six years ago, identifying themselves thoroughly with the civic and religious interests of the community and educating their children in the grammar and high schools. Five of the children survive their parents.

The funeral service was held at the old home on Friday, May 3. It was conducted by the pastor of the Congregational Church, Rev. C. M. Southgate, and Rev. Dr. E. E. Strong of the A. B. C. S. M. made a tender and appreciative address from which we quote the following:

"You will not deem me wanting in sympathy at this hour, if I say that instead of being a house of mourning it should be a house of praise. A life of eighty-two years, full of service and song, has ended here only to begin again in the world now out of sight."

Mrs. Gordon was a beautiful singer and in her early life was the leading voice in the choir of the prominent church in Brooklyn, N. Y., over which the Rev. Dr. Cox was pastor.

Mrs. Gordon's sphere was the home. Here she was queen, and received the full homage and affection of the household.

Her motherly heart was often sore over the departure of her children from the home. She followed them even in her old age visiting them in Illinois, Colorado, and Georgia, and even crossing the ocean to Spain to the home of Mrs. Guleik.

The beauty of the Lord our God was upon her. From it came that gentleness and sweetness, that purity, that devoutness which all who knew her recognized, which made her so attractive and her home so beautiful."

Street Railway Matters.

On Wednesday, of last week the new car-house of the Boston Elevated railway on Galen street, Watertown, was used for the first time. The new building is a modern structure. Besides the fine waiting-room in front, which is as yet unused, there are separate locker rooms for the motormen and conductors. These lockers, which are arranged on two floors, are made of black steel wire and are large and airy. The car-house can accommodate 130 cars; but as yet is only partly occupied. The entrance is by two tracks, which branch off finally into ten. In the rear are the repair and blacksmith shops.

We have it on the best authority that the L. road does not intend to make this car-house the terminus of the Newton cars, and that the crowding of cars every night and morning in Nonantum square will still continue unless the public remonstrate.

Visitors at Home for Aged People.

There were many guests at the informal reception given last Saturday afternoon at the Newton home for aged people, including many of the new by-ones in the town. The affair was entirely informal and the inspection of this very cheerful mansion was enjoyed by both the visitors and their hostesses. There was a ready and liberal patronage of the many useful and fancy articles made in the home, which were offered for sale.

Opening of Riverside Recreation Grounds.

Last Saturday afternoon the Riverside Recreation Grounds were opened for the season. In spite of the cool breezes, hundreds of persons thronged the grounds during the afternoon and many availed themselves of the canoeing and other privileges. In the evening the first band concert of the season was given, and the large assembly hall in the clubhouse was thrown open for dancing.

Extensive changes have been made in the buildings. These improvements were greatly admired. An outdoor skating rink lighted by electricity will be one of the attractions.

The annex building, a short distance from the main building, has been enlarged to accommodate 150 more boats and canoes than last year. There are 600 canoe racks on the grounds.

The summer membership last year was 418. This year it is expected to run up to over 600. The manager is James B. Knowlton.

Police Paragraphs.

Two runaway Italian boys from Boston were found late Sunday afternoon at Riverside by patrolman J. H. Seaver. They were locked up for a time and later turned over to their parents.

Some time Saturday afternoon a watch valued at $23 was stolen from the engine room of E. B. Ricketson's mill on Crafts street. It was the property of J. McManus of West street.

There was many a hearty hand grasp for Chief Tarbox Tuesday from his many friends who remembered it is his birthday. Felicitations were extended by the men of the department together with friends at City hall, those in private life, and out-of-town police officials.

NONANTUM SQUARE.

Considerable indignation has been expressed over the announced declaration of the Boston Elevated Co. to discontinue the use of Nonantum square as a terminal for the Brighton line of Newton cars. When the new car barn on Galen street, about one-third of a mile distant, was under construction, it was supposed to be a terminal for this line of cars as well as those running through Watertown.

We understand that the company object to making the square a through station on the ground that it will be awkward to pass its cars around the Bowdoin Square car, which also starts from this point, and also because of the inconvenience to the traveling public to be obliged to wait for a passing car, instead of stepping directly into a standing car, as at present.

The first objection can be easily avoided, either by starting the Bowdoin Square car from the Oak square terminal, by starting the car from the Watertown terminal and providing transfers from Newton cars, or by placing a crossover in the square, by which the other cars could be easily run by the standing car.

The other objection is advanced simply for the purpose of staving off the necessity of establishing a waiting room at the square. No one for a moment supposes that the Railway Company cares a penny whether the travelling public are protected or not, while waiting for the cars to start.

On the other hand, the square is clogged every night and morning with from 8 to 12 cars of the Elevated Co., to say nothing of the various Newton lines, and passengers from Boston are frequently obliged to leave the cars as far east as Charlesbank road, on account of the congestion in the square. The entire street surface is used by these people, and bicyclists, automobiles and carriages are forced to thread their way through masses of hurrying people. In case of fire the apparatus cannot begin to make fast time until the square has been passed.

The conditions in the square have been tolerated because there was seemingly no feasible remedy, but now that a solution is in sight, we believe that the people will demand that Nonantum square shall be devoted to public rather than to street railway purposes.

VACATION SCHOOLS.

The School Committee has recently granted the free use of buildings at Nonantum and Newton Centre for the vacation schools, to be conducted by clubs of ladies. The benefit obtained from these schools is clearly stated in the extracts from the report of the Newton Centre Woman's Club, found in another column. There can be no question as to the advisability of extending this good work into other villages, and we particularly commend the idea to the residents of Newtonville and West Newton.

In the face of the crying need for additional school accommodations all over the city, the proposed new police station appears to be in the nature of a luxury.

MEDICAL inspection of schools as defined at the aldermanic hearing, appears to be a misnomer.

The concrete contract again appears to be a source of controversy.

City Hall Notes.

These new bids for the concrete contract of 1901 were opened Tuesday: Simpson Bros. corporation $19,435; T. Stuart & Sons Co. $14,785 and Leroy S. Nevins of Milton $12,335. They were taken under advisement.

The mortality statements show that there were 36 deaths in the city during April. The rate was 12.36 per 1,000. Of the total number 19 were males and 17 females. The principal cause of death was heart disease there being five from this cause. On May 1 the board had on hand two cases of diphtheria, 13 of scarlet fever, one of typhoid fever and seven of measles.

The city auditor's report just issued this week contains a tabulation of the book-keeping of the city, arranged under the direction of Mr. Harvey S. Chase of the National Municipal League.

Civil service examinations for police will be held next Tuesday, and for clerks and stenographers on Wednesday, under direction of Chief Examiner Henry Sherwin.

Newton Theological Society.

We have spoken hopefully about the raising of the Newton Endowment, because we believe it is possible and the appeal ought not to be unheeded. The time is rapidly passing within which the subscription must be secured. Only twenty-five days remain of the time allowed for securing subscriptions for $150,000.

People in various parts of New England are sending in pledges and cash gifts. In the main they are small, yet they indicate a genuine interest.

From a business point of view, there are no people as much concerned with this work as those among whom the school is located. If successful in this effort, the income of $300,000 will be expended chiefly in trade in stores in this city, in maintaining homes located near the school, in improving taxable city property. The regular business which the institution brings to the community is large at present and has been considerable for many years. It will be increased in proportion as the Endowment is increased.

This is not the chief claim of the Newton Institution upon the neighboring regard of the community. Its contribution to the moral life of the city is the highest appeal.

But the business side of the subject is evident. The institution has brought thousands of dollars to this community every year. It will bring thousands more. Do the business men feel that it is a matter of indifference to them whether the school obtains larger resources or not? Do they not feel that it is worth their while to foster by personal gift a plant near their own doors which brings them regular trade and yet does not compete with any of them in their own lines? Are we wrong in expecting that many will answer these questions by making a subscription to the Endowment of the Newton Institution?

Subscribers will please send their names to Mr. Stephen Greene, Newton Centre, or to Rev. Charles A. Reese, Financial Secretary, Newton Centre.

The following is a list of subscribers and amounts to May 8th: C. W. Kingsley $5000; B. E. Cole, $5000; Friend, $5000; Friend, $5000; Friend, $10,000; W. A. D. R.

On Wednesday afternoon, May 8, Sarah Hull Chapter D. R. held its monthly meeting at the residence of Mrs. F. E. Stanley, 638 Centre street. Mrs. Stanley was assisted in receiving and entertaining by Mrs. Prescott Warren, Miss Emma Walker and Miss Stanley. There was a full attendance of members and guests, among whom were several officers of the state society.

The beauty of the house was further enhanced by decorations of a patriotic nature, the spacious halls being adorned with festoons and streamers of buff and blue, while the same scheme of color was shown in floral decorations in other parts of the house.

After a brief business meeting the following program, which was of unusual excellence, was greatly enjoyed by the audience:

Piano solo by Mr. Thayer; vocal solo, "When Love is Gone," Miss Stanley; paper, "Some Domestic Problems of our Forefathers," by Mrs. F. B. Hornbrook; group of songs, Miss Stanley.

Miss Mary A. Chapman, state regent, made very remarks. Miss Sarah E. Hunt spoke of the recent D. R. convention at Brocklyn, and the excellent work done there by the Massachusetts delegation. Refreshments and a social hour brought to a close one of the most delightful meetings of the year.

The Entertainment Club.

The vaudeville program given by the Entertainment Club in the Channing church parlors was heartily appreciated by the large audience present, if applause and encores are any criterion.

The opening number, "The Little Girl," a one act play, the principal characters being portrayed by Messrs. E. W. Wright and L. D. G. Bentley, was given with a quiet dignity and power which was thoroughly enjoyed.

In marked contrast was the farce in one act entitled "Rubber Boots," in which the pantomime evolutions and the make-up of Mr. Bentley were very funny. The encore of a song by Mrs. R. C. Emery, with chorus and dance by all the characters was also cleverly done.

Whistling solos by Signor Dorris, and the capital impersonations of Mr. Fred I. Brown in some excellent reading selections were heartily enjoyed.

Mr. Ralph W. Angier did a capital con sketch and the Simmons Bros. were extremely clever in prestidigitation and legdermain.

The cake walk by Messrs. Jack Farquhar and Guy B. Haskell, although the last was the least of the many attractive numbers given during the evening.

Conspicuous features which contributed largely to the success were the careful stage management and the electrical effects. This new lighting system was installed especially for this vaudeville and may well be permanent. The cooler temperature was thoroughly appreciated by the audience.

Mr. Ralph C. Emery, stage manager, is deserving of a large amount of credit for the smoothness with which the stage properties were handled. His assistants were Messrs. Robert E. Mandell and Robert G. Howard. Mr. Harris E. Johnson, electrician, was indispensable.

Michael J. Baird, 13, was sentenced to 18 months in the industrial school at Chelmsford yesterday morning for truancy.

High School Notes.

F., Burrage 2nd base, Waters, P., Stacey, C., Fitz 1st base, Spence, C. F., Risings, C., Ballou, R. F., Coffin 3rd base.

Last Tuesday at Cambridge, Newton played Harvard 2nd, and was defeated by the score of 10-0. Newton played good ball and but from an error in the last inning would have held Harvard down even more than she did. Newell pitched for Newton.

Last Tuesday Newton played Somerville High at the N. A. A. grounds and defeated them 9-8. Tift was easy for Newton and eight runs were made off him. Somerville then put Jones in the box and would have held Harvard down even more than she did. Newton's playing though at times brilliant, was not steady and several costly errors were due to this account.

The graduating exercises will take place on Tuesday, June 25th, at 2:30 instead of 10 a. m. on account of the entrance examinations at Harvard which take place on the morning of the same day.

Last Wednesday afternoon Newton played an exciting game with a scrub team at the N. A. A. grounds finally winning in the 10th inning by the score of 12-11. Some of the scrub team players were Newton graduates and all played good ball.

Reception to Rev. Mr. Wendte.

It was a very large and cordial gathering that filled the parlors of the Newton Centre Unitarian church Monday evening to wish bon voyage to the pastor, Rev. C. W. Wendte. Decorations of flowers and potted palms and plants greatly beautified the interior of the edifice.

Rev. Mr. Wendte was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. Wendte, and congratulations were heartily extended both of them.

The most agreeable feature was the presentation to the pastor of a purse of gold by the Ladies Aid society. The gift was graciously accepted by Mrs. W. A. Webster and Mr. Wendte made a feeling response.

An entertainment program, under the direction of Mrs. S. D. Loring and Miss Elizabeth Loring, added much to the pleasure of the evening.

Rev. Mr. Wendte sails next Saturday on an extended European trip.

Dedicated to Baby Charlie Bailey.

(For the "Newton Graphic.")

That raven haired young baby With skin so soft and fair With head so full of promise In mother's blissful care Cast on me quivering glances Like moon-beams on the hills His cries were like the Coel-Shoe Of the heath-clad Emerald hills.

Those rose-lipped lips of pleasure May yet of care wear lines But over all that Triton form Great promise now entwines Oh! bright and bounding baby Your joy for me has pain A mother's fond caresses here May not be mine again.

Now Baby Charlie's well again Sleeping calmly and serene While Newton's hills are mantled In a spring robes of smiling green And his youthful mother's watching Fearful of all unseen ills When Mary's first misters are stealing O'er the valleys and the hills.

'Twas when the sun had curtains April's breeze and vernal cold And his setting rays were quivering In the dew-drops on the grass Fare well Oh! tears of April You filled the mountain hills First Judge of said Court, this second day of May in the year one thousand nine hundred and one.

IT A HUTCHINSON O'CELY. *Coel Shoe - Fairy Music.

To the Editor of the Graphic:

The Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children earnestly desires to call attention to the work and the needs of the Society, and to appeal to the people of Newton for sympathy, co-operation and support.

Briefly, the work of the Society is to protect children from cruelty, abuse and neglect throughout the state, and to see that the laws of the state concerning children are enforced. We believe that the effect of our work is to do something towards improving the surroundings of these children, to the end that they may become useful citizens rather than dangers to society or dependents on the state. It employs trained agents to investigate reported cases, to try to rectify the abuses, and if necessary, bring the cases into the courts, giving advice and information in all manner of cases involving children.

During the past year the Society has investigated the case of 5225 children, and has invoked the aid of the court nearly 200 times. During this period it has received in contributions from the public less than $5,000. It receives no financial aid from any other source than the gifts of individuals. More generous aid is needed than the Society has received in the past to prevent curtailment of its work.

There is reason to believe that residents of this state outside of Boston do not realize that the Society's work is not local, but extends throughout the whole state, and that it has in every town and city its agents, who serve without compensation and are often unable to do more than notify the Society of cases requiring relief. The labor and expense of investigating and procuring appropriate relief are borne entirely by the Society. The single item of transportation of the Society's work to the western portion of the state to relieve cases arising there, makes it exceedingly desirable that the Society should be in a position to employ a resident paid agent in the western part of the state, both in the interests of economy and promptness. At present this is impossible. A large proportion, about one-third, of the Society's work and expense is incurred outside of Boston, while but one-fifth of its receipts comes from the same source. We believe that a knowledge of this fact will appeal to many who are in a position to help our work, even in a very small way, especially if we are given the opportunity to put before them the results of the Society's work contained in the annual report. Lack of funds prevents a general distribution of the report, as the Society would like to make, but copies will gladly be sent to all who are sufficiently interested to ask for them by postal card, and the facts which the report contains constitute the Society's strongest plea for support for its work, much of which is done in silence and unseen by the public, but which, if known, would appeal to all.

Contributions, however small, are greatly needed and will be gratefully received. Checks may be made payable to Charles F. Atkinson, treasurer, and mailed to the Society's office, 20 Beacon street, Boston.

By order of THE PUBLICATION COM.

Mass. Horticultural Society.

For the week beginning May 29 there is to be held in Boston an exhibition of flowers unique in the history of such exhibitions. It will be the first large exhibition held anywhere in which the flowers are arranged solely with a view to the best effects of great masses of blossoms, and without reference to the individual owners. In all previous exhibitions, either here or in Europe, the exhibits have been so arranged that it was possible to compare each group of flowers with those of another exhibitor, this being necessitated by the fact that prizes were usually given to the best exhibits. In the coming flower show there will be no prizes. The arrangement of Professor Charles S. Sargent of the Arnold Arboretum, and the flowers themselves will be contributed from the many famous estates near Boston, and from throughout the state.

The occasion for the exhibition is the opening of the new Horticultural Hall in the Back Bay district and the exhibition itself will surpass any previous effort of the Massachusetts Horticultural Society, in fact, it will be the greatest flower show ever held in the United States.

BOSTON AMUSEMENTS.

BAUDOUIN MUSIC HALL, VAUDEVILLE—Vaudeville novelties are difficult to obtain these days, but one will be featured in the program of the week of May 13, the person of Sam Elton, who appears in an eccentric sketch called "Speechless, or Domestic Mishaps." The act is noteworthy for its quiet comedy and the oddity of the appearance of the performer, and should be a great laughmaker. Hugh Stanton and Florence Modena will present "For Reform," a very bright and delightful comedy play. The Gypsy Gypsy, a picturesque singing sketch; Calcedo, the king of the bounding wire, will electrify his audience by his daring performance; Ryan and Richard will introduce a mirth by their funny "Lunatic's Ball." Additional comic features will be Halliday and Quinn, last season's stars of "McFadden's Flats," and Talbot and Davidson, in a potpourri of grand opera travesties; Mlle. Pagnone, in spectacular serpentine dances. Dancers of the acrobatic and whirlwind variety are the Two Cyrenes, who will be seen at Boston Music Hall for the first time; and other star specialists will be the Three Renos, grotesque acrobats; the Three Leonard Brothers, trick bicyclists; Reno and Richards, acrobatic comedy, and the male quartet which proved one of the hits of the original production of "The Female Drummer."

GREAT NEED

Of Money to Meet Offer Of Rockefeller.

Call of the Friends of Baptist Institution.

Within the following fifteen days, friends of The Newton Theological Institution must indicate by their subscriptions how much of the offered $150,000 the Institution shall receive. Not quite half of the conditional sum—$150,000—has been subscribed by others. This means that Mr. Rockefeller will be called upon for less than half the amount he offered to give Newton. This is the first time within our knowledge that money offered and needed has not been taken with a hearty response.

It will cost individuals but a little to subscribe to the Endowment, and the aggregate results will be the addition of $300,000 to the income-bearing property of the City of Newton, and increased stability for the Seminary.

Subscribers will please send their names to Mr. Stephen Greene, Newton Centre, or to Rev. Charles A. Reese, Financial Secretary, Newton Centre.

Police Paragraphs.

Inspector Fletcher recovered a bicycle Saturday which had been stolen from W. P. Sweeney's store in Nonantum square.

Bertha Griffin of Waltham reported Saturday evening the theft of her bicycle from in front of a store in Newtonville square.

A. K. Babbitt reported last Friday evening that his wheel had been stolen from the rear of the Newton clubhouse.

Mrs. Ella E. Mason has been appointed and confirmed police matron. Mrs. Mason has occupied this position for several years, though not until recently has she taken the oath of office. In her official duties Mrs. Mason is both faithful and efficient and has proven herself quite indispensable.

If Mr. Edison had brought his phonograph into court last Saturday morning to obtain a record of the proceedings he would have been busy for more than an hour shifting cylinders, and then he would have found that his machine did not operate fast enough and that he had missed considerable. It was a carnival of loquacity with Mrs. Mary Holden of 234 Adams street, Nonantum, as the main battery. She was charged with being a common scold and the more she undertook to convince the judge she was not such, the more he began to think she was. Mrs. Ellen English, a neighbor, was the complainant. She charged the Mrs. Holden said unkind things about her in such a loud voice that all the residents of that vicinity got the benefit of it. That the Holden children and the English children had been come mixed up in backyard squabbles seemed to provoke a good deal of talk. There was this and a score of other reasons. Both sides could easily have enumerated a score of causes, but the court would not stand for it. As it was the court officers had to open the windows and doors to let the talk out. Pretty soon the air was clear enough for Judge Kennedy to say a few words. He was brief and forcible. He told the Holden woman that her tongue would get her into trouble but that he would give her just one more chance to curb it. He instructed Patrolman J. J. Davis, who by the way, testified to being called upon to pacify the neighbors and Mrs. Holden, to keep a sharp watch on the woman's behavior. For the benefit of other women the judge handed out some advice and then continued the case until June 29 for sentence.

It Saved His Leg.

P. A. Danforth, of LaGrange, Ga., suffered for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg; but writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in five days. For Ulcers, Wounds, Piles, it's the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c. Sold by Arthur Hudson, druggist.

Mrs. O. G. Tower's Birthday.

Last Sunday Mrs. Olive G. Tower, widow of the late Capt. Moses B. Tower, observed her 80th birthday anniversary which was marked by an informal gathering of children, grandchildren, relatives and friends, at her residence on Seminary avenue, Auburndale.

Beside the many congratulations showered upon her Mrs. Tower was the recipient of a profusion of beautiful floral favors. The old lady was very happy and to her guests the occasion was equally enjoyable.

Mrs. Tower is a native of Hull, but for the past twenty years has made her home in Auburndale. She comes of a well known family. Her husband was formerly prominent in the merchant marine. He died about two years ago.

Mrs. Tower has four of her six children living and also 13 grandchildren.

Fought For His Life.

"My father and sister both died of Consumption," writes J. T. Weatherwax, of Wyandotte, Mich., "and I was saved from the same frightful fate only by Dr. King's New Discovery. An attack of Pneumonia left an obstinate cough and very severe lung trouble, which an excellent doctor could not help, but a few months' use of this wonderful medicine made me as well as ever and I gained much in weight. Infallible for Coughs, Colds, Catarrh of Throat and Lung trouble. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00 at Arthur Hudson's drug store. Trial bottles free.

Entertainment Club.

The annual meeting will be held next Tuesday evening in the Channing church parlors. There will be an election of officers and other business of importance transacted.

The club is being congratulated on the success of its vaudeville last week. Among those who won much favor and praise for their efforts were Mrs. Robert E. Mandell as Pauline in "Kicker Boots," Miss Mary Line Dyer as Lou in the same play, and Miss Elizabeth L. Caley, the accompanist in "The Innocent Young Maids" dance. Mr. Francis P. Lane of Boston made a hit as the pianist. Mr. George H. Daniels was most acceptable as Davenport in "The Littlest Girl."

Old Soldier's Experience.

M. M. Austin, a civil war veteran, of Winchester, Ind., writes: "My wife was sick a long time in spite of good doctor's treatment, but was wholly cured by Dr. King's New Life Pills, which worked wonders for her health." They always do. Try them. Only 25c at Arthur Hudson's drug store.

Mr. Yerxa A Candidate.

For some weeks many friends of Hon. Henry D. Yerxa of Cambridge, governor of this district, have been urging him to stand for another term and to announce, as several others intended to run if he did not. Although he was not inclined to make any declaration thus early, he has now acceded to the desire of his advisers and has said that he will be a candidate.

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for a free trial bottle, followed by a complete electoral ticket, followed by the name of Roger A. Pryor for Congress. The latter has been scratched by the voter whose name is endorsed on the back of the ballot, and that of R. Killade substituted. The ballot is well preserved and is quite a curiosity.

The NEWTON GRAPHIC desires to increase its subscription list and offers, to the pupils attending the Newton High School, an unusual opportunity of a free visit to the

to be held at Buffalo, N. Y., during the coming summer. To the four pupils receiving the highest number of votes, above the minimum of 500, either by coupons or paid subscriptions, the NEWTON GRAPHIC will provide a free excursion to the Exposition, under the auspices of the

the well known excursionists.

The party will leave Boston on Monday afternoon, arriving at Niagara Falls, the next morning, and making its headquarters at the celebrated International Hotel. Daily transportation to and from the Exposition grounds, including admissions, and a tide excursion over the wonderful Niagara Falls "Gorge Route," will be provided. The start for home will be made on Thursday night, arriving in Boston on Friday morning.

As the Raymond & Whitcomb Co. will send weekly excursions, during the Exposition season, the fortunate winners of the GRAPHIC contest will be allowed to select their own time for making the trip, and friends will be enabled to accompany them.

CONDITIONS.

A coupon will be printed in each issue of the NEWTON GRAPHIC until and including July 5, 1901, which will contain the last coupon. The contest will close at the Newton Graphic office, at 5 o'clock P. M., Monday, July 8th, 1901, after which time no coupons will be received. The result will be announced in the issue of the NEWTON GRAPHIC for July 12th.

For every yearly new subscriber to this paper at $2, paid in advance, fifty votes will be given to the pupil designated by the subscriber. Such new subscriptions must be from persons not now upon our lists, or receiving the paper regularly from our agents, the newsdealers, and changes from one member to another of the same family, for the obvious purpose of gaining the fifty votes, cannot be permitted.

Snow; "Early Days of the Club," Mrs. Jane M. Hastings; "Our New Members," Mrs. A. L. Bailey; "The New Woman," Mrs. Davis; "The New Century," Mrs. Sargent; "The Gentlemen," Mrs. Bassett, and "The Home," Mrs. Tenber.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Fourteen Years of Suffering.

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Edward E. Gar, of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to be around but constantly suffered. I tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately cured. In a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by all druggists.

B. & A. Cars in New Dress.

The dull brown coloring and the aluminum lettering that have been the standard decorations of the passenger equipment on the Boston & Albany railroad for the past decade are to be superseded by olive green and gold. In their new dress they will be exact duplicates of the cars in service on the New York Central & Hudson River road, the lessee of the Massachusetts road. Two trains are now being reeated at the Allston shops, and these will be followed by others as soon as they are out of the way.

Golf News.

An 18-hole handicap foursome tournament was played Saturday at the Newton Centre golf club, D. T. Kidder Jr., and Henry Bailey winning first place with a score 95-12-53.

At the Newton club Saturday a Scotch foursome tournament of 27 holes was played and won by T. Weston Jr. and B. P. Merrick, with a score of 3 up and 2 to play.

No Loss of Time.

I have sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for years, and would rather be out of coffee and sugar than it. I sold five bottles of it yesterday to threshers that could go no farther, and they are at work again this morning.—H. T. Phelps, Plymouth, Oklahoma. As will be seen by the above the threshers were able to keep on with their work without losing a single day's time. You should keep a bottle of this Remedy in your home. For sale by all druggists.

A Top Notcher.

In these days of hustle and enterprise in the newspaper world the public is surprised at nothing in the way of startling improvement, but the new color supplement of The Boston Sunday Herald has very early after its inception taken the title of "top notcher." Its initial issue was a marvel of excellence, but last Sunday's "Fun," with its colored cartoons, beautiful pictures and clever stories of wit and humor, was a circulation builder of the highest quality. "Heraldville" with its colored buildings to cut out and set up, presented the paragon and church, and this embryo town for boys and girls has caught the fancy of all New England. The daily colored song sheet had a catchy "coon" song to offer for the music lovers. "Fun," the new colored supplement of The Boston Sunday Herald, is superior to any of the weekly comic papers, and is very flattering way in which it has been received by the general public must be very gratifying to its publishers, who have for years given to their patrons New England's Greatest Newspaper, "The Boston Herald."

Newton Upper Falls, May 13, 1901.

To the Editor of the Graphic:

It is now a year since the people of Newton Upper Falls engaged in the unsuccessful contest for the re-election of Miss Ella F. Crooker of Wade school. The facts are too generally known to need a repetition. Charles G. Wetherbee, for unjust reasons refused to recommend Miss Crooker for re-election. Immediately the village was aroused. A petition was drawn up and signed by three hundred and fifty persons, all of whom well knew of what value Miss Crooker had been to Newton schools during her long service here. At the outset we were handicapped in not having a representative from this village upon the School Board. This greatly helped Mr. Wetherbee in accomplishing his purpose, for, having no one to interfere, he could go freely to the members of a non-resident district committee, none of whom, naturally knew very much about Wade school, and tell them whatever he pleased. By so doing he succeeded in gaining such firm allegiance, that the chairman absolutely refused a written request for his committee to meet a few citizens to talk over this matter before the Christmas vacation. Both the master and Wade school to all appearances as subsequent events proved, had given each other his word of honor that Miss Crooker's term of service should end at the close of last year's session. And end it did.

The petition of three hundred and fifty names might as well have been blank paper. We know that it was opened simply because the district committee did not propose to notice the desires of the community. The unpleasant relations between the master and his assistant was not confined to the case alone. Two other teachers felt themselves unable to work under existing conditions. Miss Morrill and Miss Burnett asked for leave of absence, hoping that in a few months matters would be straightened out, but both of these ladies have now resigned for no other reason than that they would not teach under the present administration.

On the 17th of December, less than two weeks before the Christmas vacation, Miss Martha L. Perkins, the first assistant, was asked to send her resignation before the close of the term, which insulting request she naturally refused, even when told that if she did retire quietly without "kicking up a row" she would be allowed to say that she resigned on account of ill health. As another inducement, she was told that her salary would be paid in full, and the balance of the year, as this sum of money had been so quietly worked into the budget that not even the Mayor knew of its existence. If she didn't take it what would be done with the money? Quite a problem to be sure. But Miss Perkins solved it by saying that very likely the city would be glad to receive it again. The true significance of this request, followed up by special delivery letters during vacation, is apparent when we remember that in a very few days, for the first time in two years, Upper Falls was to have a representative on the school board. So we see that if this scheme had been carried out, four assistants whose high reputation as teachers is far more widely spread than to the limits of this village, would have been driven from their positions simply by the actions of one man. There are to-day just two other teachers in Wade school who have taught there over two years, and the question arises how long will these be allowed to remain. Parents for several years have been very much dissatisfied with Mr. Wetherbee's methods and have been firmly convinced that his influence over their children was not such as they would choose to have, but being a peace loving community, and hoping from year to year that in some way these things would right themselves, have said nothing until last June. Then at the close of the school year a request signed by one hundred and fifty persons was sent to Mr. Wetherbee asking him to resign at the end of the year.

Since Mr. Wetherbee would not retire when quietly asked to do so it is very probable that a similar request will be brought before the school board at the coming May meeting.

Whooping Cough.

A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: "Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops.—JESSIE PINKLEY HALL, Springfield, Ala. This remedy is for sale by all druggists."

Mass. Horticultural Society.

One of the features of the coming flower show in the new Horticultural Hall in Boston will be the orchids from the W. P. Winsor estate at Fair Haven. These flowers, although not yet generally cultivated, lend themselves particularly well to the purposes of an exhibition that is intended wholly as a great and beautiful floral celebration, and it is not unlikely that the orchid exhibit will react upon the flower itself by increasing the number of cultivators interested in it. There is hardly another plant that has such a range of beauty both in color and in shape. In color they represent practically every possibility of a painter's palette and in shape they vary from the smallest blossoms averaging a hundred or more in a single cluster to flowers eight inches wide across the petals.

The Winsor estate is particularly rich in orchids. Peter Murray, who has charge of it, is one of the most successful cultivators in this country. The Thayer estate, in South Lancaster, and the Linneuwel estate at Wellesley, which latter is particularly fortunate in the ownership of many of the early June blossoming varieties, are also prominent among the contributors of orchids to the coming festival, and, altogether, this part of the show bids fair to be as interesting as even the better known rhododendrons and azaleas.

State House Letter.

(Special to the Graphic.)

Boston, May 15.

The members of the general court from Newton, who are serving for their first year, have now a good opportunity to know what it means to toil in legislative sessions during the heat. The House has become so anxious to get through that it is sitting daily from 10 o'clock in the morning until 5 in the afternoon, and that is too much for any legislator who expects to do first class work. However, Mr. Dana's special committee on the revision of public statutes must sit about one month between now and August, it is assumed, and a special session will come in the fall; therefore everybody is anxious to get through with the regular session.

The redistricting situation still continues to be the principal topic of discussion on Beacon Hill. All sorts of schemes are broached in connection with Congressman Powers' district, but the plan of the state committee, with certain amendments, seems as likely to stand as anything. This plan was partially explained in this correspondence a week ago. It provides that Boston shall be divided into three districts the new district to consist of three of the present senatorial districts; namely, wards 10, 12, and 18; wards 11, 19, and 25; wards 21, 22, and 23. This would make a republican district with no outside towns, thus still leaving Brookline in the 11th district. Then, to make up for the loss of Boston wards, the state committee proposes to transfer Woburn from the 5th; Burlington, Lexington, Waltham, Weston, and Wellesley from the 4th, Canton from the 12th; and Hopkinton, Upton, Mendon, and Blackstone from the third; while North Attleboro is transferred from the 11th district into the 12th. This latter transfer may not be made. As hinted last week, Woburn will not consent to being placed in the 11th district, and so is likely to put in the 8th district.

But against this state committee plan is the plan drawn by House Chairman Saunders of the redistricting committee, which contemplates the resetting of the districts in the vicinity of the Charles and Mystic rivers so that Cambridge, Arlington, Belmont, Watertown, Waltham and Somerville will make one district; of the Charles: while Malden, Everett, Melrose, Winchester, Yoburn, Stoneham, Melrose, Saugus, and Lynn will make another, of the Mystic. It must strike the citizens of Lynn, with their immense population, as very funny to be considered as having anything to do with the Mystic river. They would probably desire to have the Mystic district called the "district of the Saugus." The writer is very certain that Woburn will not be allowed in the 11th district, and so it happens. She may go into the 4th, the 7th, or more probably the 8th.

Yesterday the House took up the question of the retention by the Commonwealth of certain taxes collected from street, railroad corporations. On this matter, Messrs. Frothingham of Boston, and Cook of Leominster of the taxation committee dissented, while the committee on ways and means refused to pass upon the bill and asked to be discharged. Senator Nutt, the chairman of the taxation committee, agreed to the favorable report on the bill, probably to placate the dissenting members of the committee. The House then passed the bill, which would have the measure come before the taxation committee, who offered the measure. The commissioner of corporations in response to the request of the House has proposed to the board of assessors, this matter showing that last year the whole amount assessed on steam railroads was $1,598,439.54; the amount retained by the Commonwealth, $501,883.91; while the balance of $1,096,555.63 was distributed to the cities and towns. Boston's share of this was $385,239.64; Worcester received $62,056.28; Brookline, $55,378.64; Newton, $21,017.96; Milton, $21,727.14; Somerville, from whence the measure comes, received $4,070.80. It will thus be seen that plan to retain this money in the city treasury might relieve Somerville of a small amount of taxation, but would be likely to bear heavily upon Newton. The chances are that this measure will never reach the Governor. Mr. Dana opposed it earnestly and it was rejected by the House, 50 to 108.

Today the Senate will take up the discussion as to five cent fares on the railroads within the limit of the city of Boston. This was substituted by the House for the measure reported by the committee, which is to accommodate the Fellows way boulevard. The park commission is to build the bridge, and a special commission to be appointed by the supreme court is to apportion the expense after completion. There is no probability that any portion of the expense will come upon Newton.

On Thursday of last week a great struggle came on the question of substituting for the adverse report of the committee on ways and means the bill had to provide for the appropriation for the support of public schools. This is what is known as the "mill tax" bill. By a vote of 37 yeas to 75 nays, with an immense number of pairs, the bill was substituted, and on Friday it was ordered to a third reading without debate. Mr. Dana favored the rejection of the bill, while Mr. Bulfinch was not recorded. The chances of this bill reaching the Governor are probably no better than some previous years, while there would be no chance at all of its being signed by His Excellency. A mill tax bill did reach Governor Wolcott, but was vetoed.

Today the Senate will take up the discussion as to five cent fares on the railroads within the limit of the city of Boston. This was substituted by the House for the measure reported by the committee, which is to accommodate the Fellows way boulevard. The park commission is to build the bridge, and a special commission to be appointed by the supreme court is to apportion the expense after completion. There is no probability that any portion of the expense will come upon Newton.

On Thursday of last week a great struggle came on the question of substituting for the adverse report of the committee on ways and means the bill had to provide for the appropriation for the support of public schools. This is what is known as the "mill tax" bill. By a vote of 37 yeas to 75 nays, with an immense number of pairs, the bill was substituted, and on Friday it was ordered to a third reading without debate. Mr. Dana favored the rejection of the bill, while Mr. Bulfinch was not recorded. The chances of this bill reaching the Governor are probably no better than some previous years, while there would be no chance at all of its being signed by His Excellency. A mill tax bill did reach Governor Wolcott, but was vetoed.

before 9 Wednesday morning, she was struck by a Boston-bound electric. Starter Horace A. Webb was in charge of the car and there was no conductor. Mrs. Walker was knocked down and somewhat bruised.
Happily no bones were broken. She was taken to police station one and attended by Dr. Bodford and McIntosh. Later she was conveyed to the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. J. Brown on Charlesbank road.

fortably it was first feared the injury might result seriously for her. Mrs. Walker of this place died at his home on Winchester road last Sunday aged 78 years. He was a native of Vergennes Vt., and when a boy moved with his family to St. Albans where he learned the watchmaker's trade.

Later he worked his way through Andover and entered Harvard with the class of 1852.
He was for many years in business in Harvard Square, Cambridge, and founded the Avon Home for children found destitute in Cambridge and provided for its endowment. Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 o'clock from the house and were conducted by Rev. O. S. Davis pastor of the Central church. Favorite selections of the deceased were rendered by a trio of voices. The interment was in the Cam-where he engaged in farming. Mr. Decker stone crusher, and the escaping of steam

DOORS CLOSED.

Doings of School Board Kept Secret.

By Final Action Miss Perkins Not Retained.

There was a strenuous session of the school board Wednesday evening, lasting from 8 p. m. until 1:30 a. m. next day.
Every matter of business was transacted behind closed doors, but the board's aversion to publicity is already well known and the reporters were not surprised at being invited out immediately after the board convened, nor at learning after a wait of nearly six hours that the board members had nothing to give out.

It is lawful, perhaps, for the board to consider appointments and confirmations of teachers in executive session, but not to transact most of its business with the press representatives on the outside. Such, however, has been the custom of the Newton board for a long time.

The agitation in Upper Falls over the re-election of Miss Martha L. Perkins, and also against the retention of C. G.
Wetherbee, both of the Wade grammar school, was particularly responsible for the unusual length of the session, while the effort to oust Mr. Spinney from Newton Centre took considerable time. Unfortunately Miss Perkins was not retained, but happily Mr. Spinney was. Mr. Wetherbee will also remain.

The feeling of the 100 and more Upper Falls residents is clearly shown by these petitions, which are nothing if not comprehensive:

"We, the undersigned, are opposed to the forced resignation of Miss Martha L.
Perkins, the first assistant of the Wade school. We believe that her well-established ability as a teacher has not been impaired by her length of service. We demand that she be allowed to complete her long and honorable services in the school by teaching at least one more year free from the petty persecution that have been imposed upon her during the past 16 months."

"We, the undersigned, believe that Mr.
Charles G. Wetherbee should not be re-elected as master of the Wade school at Newton Upper Falls, and we respectfully request that he be removed or transferred to some other district."

The above were received. That was all.
Without the ceremony of referring them to a committee for investigation they were laid on the table that these subjects of such vital importance to some but hurried through. Miss Perkins goes; Mr. Wether-bee stays. In Miss Perkins' place Miss Harriett Wetherell is appointed first assistant.

Upon being questioned by the newspaper men the board members who were interviewed at the close of the session each made evasive answers and suggested suavely "You'd better see somebody else."

It was learned, however, that orders were adopted that the High school be closed for the annual summer vacation on June 25, and the other schools June 27.
An appropriation of $17,235 for the monthly school expenses was authorized. The following resignations were received:
Miss Goodrich of the High school, Miss Taylor of the Williams school, Miss Blackwell of the Underwood, Miss Baker of the Bigelow, Miss Nickelson of the Wade.
The matter of giving the name of the Roger Wolcott to the Wade school was referred to the Ward 5 committee.

Charlton D. Miller was appointed to the vacant mastership at the Hyde school.

Case of Little Alice Wing.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hall of Newtonville desire to obtain custody of little Alice Wing, of whom they claim the rightful guardianship. They have applied to the courts to help them. The case will be heard May 27 before Judge Lawton in the Probate Court.

The Halls claim that they have had the care of the child since the death of her mother about 10 years ago. They brought it up as their own and are very much attached to little Alice. They say that not until Alice's father died last June did her relatives say anything about caring for her.

But once since the 26th of last February, the day on which the child disappeared, has Mrs. Hall seen the girl. A few days ago information came to her that she was in Marlboro in the care of a Mr. and Mrs.
Davis. Mrs. Hall went there immediately.
The little girl was playing in the yard, but was carried into the house. Mrs. Hall's request to be allowed to see her was refused.

It is alleged that on the 26th of February William Wing, a brother, called at the Jackson school, which Alice attended, and took her away.

It is claimed that the child was taken to Lynn, thence to Rutland, Vt., where she was kept for several weeks. She was traced from one city to another by the Halls, but the constant surveillance under which she was kept baffled all their efforts to regain possession of her. They say that she was again taken to Lynn for two weeks. The Halls allege that she was kept from school and often cruelly beaten.
From Lynn the girl was carried to Boston, and thence to Marlboro, where she was located by the Halls. Since Mrs. Hall's visit to that town, it is claimed that the child has been taken to New York to avoid seizure.

Police Paragraphs.

A passenger train was stoned by boys between West Newton and Auburndale last Saturday afternoon. If it is possible to apprehend the miscreants they should be severely punished.

A bicycle owned by George Crookford was stolen from the piazza of his brother's residence, 294 Tremont street about 9 Tuesday evening.

Ten gallons of milk was stolen from the steps of Yerxa's branch grocery at Nonantum early Tuesday morning.

Daniel J. Cronin was found in the Woodland station late Sunday evening by the station agent. The latter took him to the hospital. Cronin was found to be in a semi-comatose state. Afterwards he told the hospital authorities he had been drugged. It was learned he was a sailor and had lately been discharged from the U. S. navy. Yesterday morning in the police court he was adjudged insane and committed to the Worcester insane hospital.

Joseph Balkins, 22, was complained of yesterday morning for the larceny of $1040 from Dominie Kosowski of 10
Mechanic street, Newton Upper Falls.
Both are Poles. It was alleged by the government that Balkins was called to the Kosowski house on business and that he took the money from a bureau drawer.
This Balkins denied. Probable cause was found and he was held in $800 bonds for

The man who can hardly crawl, and has just strength to get through a day's work, has no strength left for family life. He wants to be quiet; to be alone, out of sight and sound of everybody.

What a difference between such a man and the healthy, hearty man, who romps with his children and rides his laughing baby to "Banbury Cross." Usually disease of the stomach, involving the entire digestive and nutritive system.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. When these diseases are cured the hindrance to the proper nourishment of the body is removed and strength comes back again.

"I am happy to say I am getting to feel fine," writes Mr. A. J. Vandewater, of 371 West Division Street, Chicago, Ill. "In all I have taken six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and four or five vials of the little 'Pellies.' They have done me wonders of good. These medicines have brought the great change in me from a slow motion of a man that could hardly crawl, tired and sick all the time, and could do no work. Now I can work, sleep, eat, and feel fine, and that tired feeling is all going away. I am very thankful that I wrote to Dr. Pierce. His 'Golden Medical Discovery' and his little liver 'Pellies' have almost made a new man of me. I feel young as I did at thirty years. No other doctor for me, only Dr. Pierce."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

PLAYGROUNDS.

Aldermen Devote Much Time to Subject.

Several Hearings and Also Routine Business.

Aldermen Brown, Chesley, Fisher, Hutchinson, Lathrop, Lowe, Norris, Pond, Pulsifer, Saltonstall, Stickney, Trowbridge, Wardwell, Weed and President Bailey were present at the regular session of the board of aldermen, last Monday evening.

HEARINGS.

At the hearings announced for taking land for sewers in Chaske avenue, Owatona street and Grey Birch terrace, no one appeared.

At the hearing for taking land for sewer in Virginia road, Mr. Andrew Peters said he would never use the sewer, and that he was still paying for a sewer on the Washington street side of his land. He thought the buildings too few and scattered for any sewer.

Mr. J. Horton Pryor represented the Hicks, Williams and Scott estates and remonstrated against any assessment, although willing to give consent if not assessed. He believed it unjust to make them pay. He claimed that the city had always refused their requests even for a load of ashes.

Mr. Joshua Hutton also believed the sewer would be of no benefit.

At the hearing upon taking land for sewer in Elmwood street, Mr. W. M. Morse favored the matter in order to reach a new house he was building. Mr. Patrick McInerney believed the sewer should come another way for the Morse house, and said no one wanted it in Elmwood street.

City Engineer Farnham stated that a route from Montvale avenue would not give proper drainage, and Mr. McInerney doubted the statement with a flow of language difficult to follow.

COMMUNICATIONS.

The mayor called the attention of the board to the seizure of land of W. S. Appleton at Oak Hill for water supply purposes, without compensation, and on motion of Alderman Weed the matter was referred to the committee on claims and water department sitting jointly.

The mayor also transmitted a petition of the permanent firemen for leave of absence of one day in eight, and statement of Chief Randall that such action would cost about $1825, and the matter was referred to the committee on claims and water department.

The request of the board of health for sewer in Langley road, Thompsonville, was referred to the sewer committee.

The bond of Agent Stone of the board of health, as a constable, with the American Surety Co. of New York, as surety for $3000 was approved.

PETITIONS.

The petition of Higgins et al., objecting to noise of power house of the Newton & Boston Street Railway Co., was referred to the City Solicitor.

That of the Telephone Co. for attachments on Erie avenue was referred to the Street Light Company and a hearing ordered for May 29th at 7.45 p. m., before the City Solicitor.

Petitions of J. W. Foster for street watering on Bowdoin street and Hillside road; of Folsom et al., for crosswalk at Plainfield street and Elmwood street; and of Folsom et al., for crosswalk at Pine Ridge road of Bacon et al., relative to drainage of Pine Ridge road, and of Mrs. W. L. Chaloner for a sidewalk on Lowell avenue were referred to the highways committee.

Petitions of John Walsh for a junk license and of John Eustis for a wagon license were referred to the license committee.

Petitions of Wilbur Bros. for a common victualer's license and of Santoli Bonifacio for a license as a street musician were granted without reference.

A hearing was assigned on June 3rd, at 7.45 p. m., on petition of A. H. McVier to locate a horse power boiler at 335 Centre street.

Petitions of the Newton Hospital for sewer and of John H. Lesh for sewer in Beacon street were referred to the sewer committee.

PLAYGROUNDS.

Alderman Fisher presented the petition of F. H. Tucker and others requesting the acceptance of proposition of the B. & A. R. R. of a lease of land on Church and Bellevue streets for $400 a year, for a playground for the smaller children, the grounds to be put into condition by citizens. The matter was referred to the Park committee.

PLAINFIELD STREET.

Alderman Wardwell called attention to the petition for laying out of Plainfield street which he had introduced before the Highway committee for four years and inquired as to its present status.

Alderman Lathrop stated that the matter was complicated with a proposed change in ordinance which was now being considered by the committee.

Alderman Wardwell stated that the change in ordinance was presented early in the year, and that the rules require a report in three weeks or on demand for further time. He suggested that the committee be instructed to report at the next meeting. On request of Alderman Saltonstall and Fisher that better work might be accomplished if the committee was granted more time, the motion was changed so as to require a report in one month's time and adopted.

ORDERS.

The following orders were adopted:—

Taking lands for sewer purposes and authorizing construction in Chaske avenue, Owatona street, Gray Birch terrace and Elmwood street; authorizing the laying out of Melrose street, Winter, High and Melrose streets; authorizing hearings June 3, for taking land for sewers in Whitman road and Moran street; assigning hearing June 3, on petition of High street, appropriating $25 for settlement of claim of Baury estate; appropriating $500 for settlement of claim of Frederick Johnson; authorizing mayor to release certain lands to P. A. McVier, granting $71,497.02 for city expenses to June 15; authorizing city treasurer to advance $6,250 for moving old Mason school house; authorizing issue of certificates of indebtedness for $17,900 for new contagious ward; authorizing laying out of Bowdoin street, grant of N. E. Tel. & Tel. Co., attachments on Hancock street, Wolcott park, and Waverly avenue; granting Telephone Co. & Gas Light Co. locations on Howard street; granting to V. C. Light Co. p. m. attachments on Walnut street, Glen avenue and Elgin street; authorizing location of street light on Melrose street; and treasurer to receive $275 from W. & B. Street Railway company and city engineer to expend same for plans, etc.

With Alderman Weed in the chair, President Bailey moved the reconsideration of the order requiring alteration of tracks of W. & B. Street Railway company in Washington street, Lower Falls. When this was done, President Bailey offered perfecting amendments, limiting the scope of the order to points between Wales street and the Charles river. The amendments were carried and the amended order adopted.

When the order of the finance committee appropriating $900 for completion of present contagious wards was reached, Alderman Weed introduced a substitute appropriating $2300 for furnishing such wards.

Alderman Fisher explained that the finance committee had objected to the $2300 order as establishing a new precedent and as many of the articles in the order were perishable. The committee were favorable to the hospital work but have selected the articles as properly go with the building. On motion of Alderman Weed the orders were then tabled.

A CENTRAL PLAYGROUND.

Alderman Hutchinson referring to the matter of playgrounds, suggested the advisability of one central playground of 30 acres or so, adapted as to be available for all kinds of but door sports, with a brick gymnasium and a swimming tank for winter use. Such a scheme would be suitable for the city and would undoubtedly cost no more than many small scattered playgrounds. He did not expect an early accomplishment but believed it worth considering.

Alderman Weed heartily favored the idea, and regretted that the Bullough pond project had not been accepted. This plan however does not take care of the small children.

Alderman Brown sympathized with the movement and believed the Brookline bath house had been a first class investment for that town.

President Chesley also favored the idea. Alderman Bailey took the floor and called attention to the feasibility of adapting the present playground at Newton Centre to the plan. He claimed that the High school was the best place for athletic work and the Newton Centre playground was only 10 minutes ride from the High school. He thought it wiser to develop our present resources rather than involve large expense for land which could not be made certain.

He also favored small playgrounds in each ward for little children.

On motion of Alderman Hutchinson the matter was referred to the park committee.

Alderman Fisher called attention to the Memorial Day exercises and hoped the aldermen would turn out in good numbers.

At 9:40 o'clock the board adjourned.

A Safe Investment.

The Sweden Copper Mining Co. of Portland, Oregon, is one of the largest and most promising copper properties in the country. 50,000 shares of preferred stock is put on the market to purchase a smelter. This preferred stock guaranteed by one of the strongest financial institutions of the Pacific coast, makes it absolutely safe, while the ore is so extensive and rich, (a 25 foot vein assaying $48.80). When the smelter is at work a large monthly dividend can be paid, and the stock worth several times its price. Samples of ore and descriptive pamphlets can be seen at 48 Stevens Building, Newton, and 95 Crescent street, Auburndale.

To the Editor of the Graphic:—

On April 1st, the Board of Aldermen voted to equip and maintain Cabot park as a general public playground provided the citizens of the district to be benefitted would before May 15th, pay into the city treasury $1100, towards the $3100 necessary for the primary equipment of the park. This sum the committee has succeeded in obtaining. For this success the committee desires to thank the public spirited citizens of Wards One, Two and Seven, who have generously come forward in this effort to help the boys, the Board of Aldermen which made us the offer, and the editor of the GRAPHIC who has willingly lent his columns for stirring interest in the project.

The city engineer I will be glad to receive suggestions from anyone who feels that certain things should or should not be done in the laying out of the grounds.

It was interesting to us who collected the money to discover that very few who were asked to contribute failed to do so, showing that the people of Newton are always ready to do everything reasonable for the health, education and commendable amusement of their children.

Hyde-Isola.

Miss Margherita Isola, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pietro Isola of Waban, was married Tuesday evening to Charles Gilman Hyde of Philadelphia, in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Waban. The edifice was completely filled with guests made up of the most prominent society folk of the Newtons, Brookline, Boston, New York and Philadelphia.

Whooping Cough.

A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: "Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl could call lustily for cough syrup between whoops."—JESSIE PINKLEY HALL, Springfield, Ala. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

STAR CHAMBER PROCEEDINGS.

We feel called upon to enter a public protest against the method pursued at the meetings of the school committee, where public business is transacted in executive session from which the press is excluded.

The members of the school board are representatives of the public and all of their acts should be subject to the scrutiny of their constituents. No one can deny this fact, and yet at the last meeting of the committee, an executive session was moved, immediately after roll call at 8 o'clock and adjournment was not reached until nearly six hours later. During this period important public business was transacted, without opportunity for publicity. Such proceedings savor too strongly of star chamber methods, are un-American, and cannot be too strongly condemned.

The wishes of the people of the Upper Falls as evidenced by largely signed petitions were ignored, but by whose instigation, we are unable to learn.

The city has been losing confidence in its school committee for several years, and although great care has been taken in the selection of its members in the immediate past the new men are either unwilling or unable to stand out for what is desired. The executive session is either a convenient cloak under which both old and new members cover their sins of omission and commission, or it may be the veil which some unknown champion of the people is sturdily, but vainly endeavoring to remove.

Suspicion is naturally attached to any action taken in executive session and the school board will continue to be an object of distrust until its objectionable methods of transacting public business are eliminated.

REDISTRICTING.

The report of the committee on redistricting has been submitted to the Legislature by which this city is placed in the twelfth or Norfolk county district. This district is the same as the old Eleventh, with Avon, Braintree, Canton, Hollbrook, Randolph, Stoughton, Wellesley and Weymouth in Norfolk county, Hopkinton in Middlesex county, Blackstone, Mendon and Upton in Worcester county, added and the 4 Boston wards and Belmont deducted. The district contains a population of 197,583, and an estimated republican majority of 8600. The loss of the Boston wards will not be regretted by the politicians in the district, and Newton as the only city should have some influence in the congressional conventions in the future.

DISCOURTEOUS TREATMENT.

By its action on the petitions from Upper Falls, the school committee shows but scant courtesy to the wishes of that district. Immediate and adverse action on matters of this character indicate either a policy of contempt for the petitioners and their request, or show that the board had already prejudged the case and would brook no opposition.

We believe the wishes of the people of Upper Falls are entitled to consideration even by such an unrepresentative body as the school committee has often proved itself to be.

Some time we hope our public representatives will learn the truth of Lincoln's axiom "But you can't fool all the people, all the time."

The proposition of the Boston Elevated to construct the Washington street subway at its own expense, on a 99 years' lease is an attractive one on its face. The proposition is unusual and is advertised as an evidence of great generosity on the part of the corporation. As we have pointed out before, everything required of a public service corporation, for which it raises money from the sale of bonds or the issuance of redeemable stock, is eventually paid for by the public, through the earnings of the corporation. The Board of Trade are antagonizing the plan of the Elevated road, because the cost of the subway as a municipal undertaking, will be met within 32 years. The Elevated's scheme then resolves itself down into a plot to obtain about 18 years of free rental of a subway, which the public pay for under any method of procedure.

The Gas commissioners have recommended a reduction in price of gas in Waltham from $1.50 to $1.35 per 1000 feet. The Newton petition is still pending.

The passage of the mill tax bill by the Legislature will cost Newton nearly $21,000.

Clubs and Lodges.

Miss Alice Mande Smithers of Lasell seminary has been appointed D. G. M. of Henry Wilson chapter, Sons of Temperance, Natick.

The annual meeting of the Entertainment Club was held Tuesday evening in the church parlors on Eldridge street. These officers were elected: F. W. Webber, president; Bancroft L. Goodwin, vice-president; Miss Edith Byfield, secretary; B. B. Huff, treasurer, and Miss A. Bertha Caton, Miss Caroline Coppins and Horace C. Harrington, executive committee. It was voted to appropriate $100 for installing electric lights and $50 for the Sunday school.

Mr. Ida Connell, R.A., will hold a smoker in Denison hall, Newtonville, Monday evening, May 27.

At the 20th anniversary celebration of the formation of Newton Lodge, A.O.U.W., held in Newton, May 14, A. W. B. Huff, who has served as recorder during the entire twenty years of the existence of the lodge, was presented with a handsome watch chain suitably inscribed.

Lafayette Lodge of Watertown worked the first degree for Newton Lodge and Gov. Gore Lodge of Waltham in Odd Fellows' hall, West Newton, last evening. There was a large delegation present and after the degree work was completed a collation was served.

Mr. W. H. Rand of West Newton has formed a Loyal Legion of Children, and meetings will be held Saturday afternoons in A. O. U. W. hall.

Members of the Caleb Stark Chapter Junior Sons and Daughters of the Revolution are invited by Daniel Townsend of Lynn to a costume party to be given Saturday afternoon at the rooms of the Lynn Historical Society, Exchange street.

Mr. Ida Connell of Royal Arcanum has greatly increased in membership during the last two years and numbers among its members many of the best known residents of the city. Next Monday night at Denison hall, Newtonville, there will be a meeting for men at which there will be a musical entertainment and also a collation. Admission will be by ticket, to be obtained from the members of the Council of which Geo. E. B. Putnam of Newton Centre is Regent and Chas. D. Cabot of Newtonville is Secretary.

A home meeting of Riverdale Lodge, N. E. O. P., was held last Monday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hadlock on Lexington street, Auburndale. After a brief business session, which was played, followed by refreshments.

Among Women.

The reception given by Mrs. N. T. Allen to the members and friends of the Newton Woman Suffrage League on May 18th, was a great success, and a real letter day, or evening in the annals of the club. The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. Rowe. Owing to the great loss sustained by the league in the death of Miss Mary Shannon, it was voted that a letter of sympathy expressing a sense of this loss, be sent to the bereaved family. The entertainment of the evening opened with a Polonaise by Leyschorch and a Hawaiian song, "Pua Sardinna," charmingly rendered by Miss Lauka. Miss Eaton "set the table in a roar" with four of her laughter provoking monologues, and Mr. Drew spoke a few interesting words on the subject of women in China. He was followed by Miss Blackwell who, as usual, made a vigorous plea for woman suffrage. At the close of the evening refreshments were served and social intercourse was enjoyed.

In aid of the testimonial to Mrs. Marie A. Moore, who sailed on Tuesday, a subscription whist party was held in the Newton Club house last Friday. The matrons were Mesdames Stacy, Sampson, Shirley, Earl, Rogers, Bailey and Mr. Whiting. Members of the N. E. Women's Club and other friends from Brookline, Waltham, Allston and other towns in the vicinity were present. The winners of the souvenirs were Mesdames Boyden, Rogers, North, Shaw, Merchant and Kendall.

The Moore Testimonial Fund was substantially increased at a pleasant whist party, Wednesday afternoon, at the residence of Mrs. Lane on Elmwood street, when Mrs. Gardner O. North entertained a number of friends from Boston, Brookline, Malden, Melrose, Waltham and the various Newtons. Ten souvenirs were awarded and refreshments served. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Sampson were two who made high scores.

The women's clubs of Newton were well represented at the ninth annual meeting of the State Federation held in Clinton on Wednesday. Mrs. Adelaide N. Blodgett gave the report of the finances and Mrs. E. N. L. Walton spoke for the Education committee, calling attention especially to the need of training schools for girls. At the election of officers Mrs. Adelaide N. Blodgett of the Social Science club was chosen treasurer.

D. A. R.

A meeting of the Lucy Jackson Chapter of Newton, D. A. R., was held at the house of Mrs. Woodbridge, Otis street, West Newton, on May 21st. Mrs. Woodbridge was assisted in receiving by Miss Taylor, Mrs. F. M. Lowe and Mrs. Gill. Handel's sonata rendered on the violin by Miss Schoff was followed by an address by Professor Woodbridge, who gave an outline sketch of the origin of the Louisiana lottery, of its growth and methods, and of its corrupting influence upon its promoters and its victims, and upon the press, the pulpit, the politics, the legislation and the judiciary of the state, and of the determined effort of the lottery company to enslave the state to its purpose and of the final desperate struggle within the state by which its power was broken, and of the aid given to the state's service by the sympathy and moral support and money from other and particularly the northern states. He then drew a picture of the menace with which the lottery company, deposed from Louisiana and rehabilitated in Florida and Honduras, and on the high seas in the steamship Breakwater, threatened the integrity of the national government by getting control of the post office department, and becoming a rich, powerful and corrupting factor in national politics. The successive steps were described by which he became involved in the conflict, and by which the conflict was carried into the national legislature and waged against great and almost overwhelming odds until the anti-lottery bill, after passing through a remarkably perilous and dramatic course, at last reached the President just in time to be signed and made a law before the stroke of 12 on Monday noon, March 4, 1894.

Mr. J. T. Burns has sold Mr. Thomas Kelley an 8 room house on Cap. O. street, Watertown; and 600 feet of land belonging to Mr. Braman of Ivanhoe street, Newton; has rented Mr. Lincoln of Pearl street, house No. 23 Waverley avenue; Mr. Packard of Gale street; Mr. Speare's house Wesley street; Mr. Forsyth of Chauncy street; Mr. Hibbard's house, 33 Jefferson street; Mr. Budde of Boston Mr. Walker's house, Charlesbank road; Mr. Burrell of Waltham Mr. Crocker's house, 11 Fayette place; Miss Forsythe of Richardson street No. 21 Waverley avenue; Mrs. McGuill of Boston Mrs. Hamblin's house, Channing street; Mr. Fred Wilbur Mr. Livermore's house No. 103 Glen street; Mr. Frank Wilbur, Mr. Livermore's house No. 105 Glen street.

Last Friday afternoon at the N. A. A. grounds a league game was played between Cambridge Latin and Newton, the former winning by the score of 4-1. Newton was only saved from a shut out by Stephenson who succeeded in getting home the last part of the ninth inning.

Last Tuesday Brookline High and Newton High played a 10 inning game and Brookline won by the score of 7-6. The only reason for Newton's defeat was the desire of some of the players to do exhibition stunts and the quicker this practice is stopped, the better chance Newton will have to redeem itself.

The meetings of the P. B. and Gamma Beta Clubs have been postponed until next week.

The annual outdoor drill will take place on Saturday, June 8th, at 2:30, instead of June 17th as in former years.

Ackley, Mrs. Pearmain Hineley and Miss Agnes S. Merchant.

—The first of the season was held at the Woodland Park hotel last Saturday evening in charge of Messrs. Cheney J. Hatch, Arthur C. Thomas and W. Graydon Stetson. Dancing was from 8 to 11 o'clock, music being furnished by the hotel orchestra and during the intermission refreshments were served. These hops will be held weekly until July 1st.

BOSTON MUSIC HALL, VAUDEVILLE.—Boston Music Hall this week presents on its spacious stage a genuine game of football with the participation of players, in the familiar accoutrements of warfare. This specialty will be given by Sully, Walsh & Co. As a matter of fact comedy will play a large part in the game, and those who wish a good laugh will do well to drop into the convenient and comfortable theatre which is patronized by the best and most critical of variety lovers. A splendid aggregation of musicians are the Five Noses, a family of talented singers and instrumentalists. Dooley and Kent are names to conjure with. They stand for two of the witliest and most successful of minstrel entertainers. Hill and Hull and acrobatic grotesques. Wilton and Van Aken are experts on the horizontal bars. Others in the attractive bill will be the Three Westons, the veteran Sam, a fine old minstrel, and his two gifted daughters, in pretty little musical sketch; Loney Haskell, an uncouth monologist; Purvis and Darrell, with a skit in which a trained donkey has a leading role; Riley and Hughes, blackface comedians; "Fankie" and his top-spinning and necromancing; Nellie V. Nichols, who sings coon songs with the best of them; Pierce and Egbert, originators of the illustrated song idea; Burden, Doll and Burden, in a neat club juggling act; Josephine Beyerle, a singing and dancing comedienne; Eugene O'Rourke and company in the rollicking comedy sketch, "In Parlor A" and the Vitagraph.

An Innovation.

The Boston Herald introduced last Sunday, as a feature to supplement its excellent publication, a comic section, under the title of "Fun." The cartoons and jokes were original and above the standard of the many alleged humorous papers. The printing, especially on a rapid working press, was excellent. The Herald has set an example in progressiveness which it will be hard to keep pace with.—The Newspaper Maker.

The Riverside Recreation Grounds will hold their fourth assembly Saturday evening in charge of the House Committee. Music will be furnished by the Peterson's Orchestra of Boston. Dancing from 8 to 10 o'clock.

NEWTON Y. M. C. A.

Secretary E. A. Lincoln's

Excellent Report in Full.

Another year has gone since you were called together to hear the annual reports of the association and to discuss the plans for the work of another year.

The past year has undoubtedly had its mistakes and its disappointments yet withal we believe it to be a year of progress.

RELIGIOUS WORK.

The work of the Religious Department is one that cannot be easily described on paper. It is a work that needs the careful prayerful attention of us all and is a work in which we may all participate if we will. Our Sunday meetings have been held some large some small, but have been in quality of the best.

The support we have received from the pastor of our neighboring churches has made this work much easier and the advice and co-operation of such men leads encouragement to the further prosecution of the work.

We believe there are many young men in Newton who can bear testimony that these meetings have been a source of great help to them in their Christian life not only in what they have heard, but in what they have been privileged to do for others.

Many of the active young men in our churches today are those who in this past and other years have developed their talent for Christian work in the religious work of our Association.

The mission of the Association is not to imitate the church or to oppose her, but in every way to assist the churches realizing that to them we owe an allegiance as the institution appointed of God for the spreading of the Gospel of His Son among the Sons of men.

Recently our committee have decided to observe the second Sunday of each month as a rally Sunday. The meetings that have been held on these Sundays have been remarkably attended numbering 175 to 250. These meetings have been addressed by the best of speakers and we believe will be made an attraction among the many meetings which will be held in our city.

We have to report that 8 young men have responded to our appeal to live Christian lives. To these young men we look with much interest and sincerely pray that they may develop into the best kind of Christian men and go into the work of their respective churches to be of great value to them. The success of the religious work of our department depends not upon the Gen. Sec., and chairman of the committee, but upon each and every one who loves his fellow and who is willing to share in the work of bringing him to the Gospel and the Gospel to him.

SOCIAL AND BENEVOLENT WORK.

The social life of our Association has been helpful to us all. Speaking from personal experience the secretary wishes to state that he has yet to find a people more cordial and social than the members and friends of the Association and of the churches who contribute to its support.

Our business men's reception held on Wednesday evening, March 21, was an attempt along this line. It was with the desire of bringing our Association in touch with the business men of this city that this event was arranged and its results were encouraging to note. Several new members were obtained because of this and a friendly feeling aroused which we believe still exists.

We believe that social work is more than a periodical serving out of ice-cream and cake, though this is wise occasionally, but the average man we touch day by day wants something more substantial than this. A cordial word, a friendly clasp of the hand and a willingness to listen and sympathize with a fellow, will melt and hold a man long after the ice-cream has melted and the cake has been eaten.

Our Association has not had the funds to enter into the work of the charities as much as we would like but we have enabled in a few small ways to assist in cases which we have found to have been worthy.

1. Two men have been supplied with clothing and shoes during the cold winter months.

2. One box of clothing was given to a girl of seven years who during the cold and stormy weather was obliged to stay away from school because she lacked these things.

3. A fellow called who was unable to work out doors because his shoes were worn through. His want was supplied.

4. Magazine and papers have many times been sent to the sick and poor.

5. Fruit and flowers have been sent to the sick in the hospital, this through the kindness of the visiting committee of our ladies auxiliary.

6. A stranded man in town was provided with a bed and supper for the night.

7. Two men provided with suits of warm woolen underwear.

8. Five men have been assisted to get positions.

9. Two women have secured work as laundresses.

10. An elderly man taken sick in town was provided transportation to his home some 50 miles away.

In response to a call made some time ago several bundles of clothing were sent to the association's office and have from time to time been distributed in such instances as mentioned above.

We have on hand a list of desirable places where board and room may be obtained and to this list we often refer to assist our young men and others who are strangers in our town to secure rooms in desirable homes.

PHYSICAL DEPARTMENT.

The work of our Physical Dept., has been prosecuted this year with the best of vigor and many new members have been added to our gymnasium. At our business men's reception held March 21st we had our gymnasium filled with visitors who watched with great interest the contests of our gymnasium members.

Our Association may well feel proud of many of the members of this department for we have among them men whose record as an athlete has been excellent and who hold many trophies that have won because of their superior qualities.

Our gymnasium we are sure will command Newton's next year in a way that it has never before. Already steps have been taken which in the judgment of those in charge of the physical work are for the best interests of this department.

Our gymnasium is of the best. Our facilities for prosecuting the work are favorable and we believe we are yet to make a record in this branch of the work that will astonish our friends.

Recently we have organized a new class for the men of the Boston Elevated R. R. These motormen and conductors have come in among us twenty in number, eleven having joined during the past month of April.

These R. R. men come into our rooms during their leisure lay offs at the square, and morning afternoon and evening they may be found in the gymnasium.

Many of the larger and stronger men are training to pass the physical examination of the Boston Police Dept.

We have made two additions to the work of this department. First was the fitting up of our hall as an indoor tennis court. This has proved a great attraction and hardly a day has passed but what the court has been in use. This has been a great advantage to the lovers of the game and has enabled them to keep in practice during these winter months.

The second addition has been the introduction of the shuffle board, a game of rare sport. This game has done much to hold the men of our association and has been patronized continually. One particular good feature of the shuffle board is that it interests and holds the older men and is regarded by them as a game worth their attention. We are indebted to a loyal friend of the association who because of his desire to help men, presented us with this valuable game. The interest the men have shown in these indoor games goes to show conclusively that the men may be attracted and held just as long as we have the means and facilities for holding them.

During the past year we have fitted three men who have successfully passed this examination and one of them has a position in the police department. Another of these expects to take the examination in the Boston fire department and many we understand expect to take another examination during the coming month of June.

We have entertained visitors on our Gym floor from the state of South Carolina and the 29th street branch of the N. Y. Association.

It has been our pleasure during the year to refresh some of the weary travelers through our city with a genuine shower bath.

This has indeed been a treat to many a man who has unfortunately been deprived of the convenience which many of us enjoy.

The work has been good but we hope for better and believe that another year will show a marked increase as well as numbers in the Physical department.

BOYS WORK DEPARTMENT.

This department is by no means an unimportant one but on the contrary we believe it to be the one to which we shall be obliged to devote more attention than heretofore.

It would be difficult to imagine a prosperous future to our association without the boys work department. It is the feeder of the senior department. The school where the boys are taught the A. B. C. of association life and from which they graduate into the larger work of the senior department.

Realizing this many of our association are employing special secretaries skilled in the art of handling the boy and letting him loose upon the community that he may draw under the influence of the association the youth to whom they look for future support.

One secretary has placed himself on record as saying that the only hope of his association was from the boys that could be secured as junior members in the incoming 5 years.

The president of the Brewster's league or alliance that convened in Philadelphia a few years ago said, "We must have the boys. Without them we cannot run our business. Secure the boys at any cost." If the ruler realizes he needs the boys for the future of his business it would be unwise for us to imagine that we can conduct our business with a prosperous future without them.

What value do you place upon a boy, especially if he is your boy? If the boy in question is not your boy he is some one else's boy and hence is in value to his parents what your boy is to you. The boys of Newton today will be the young men of 1910, and in 15 years from now will be occupying the places of many of us perhaps who are here tonight. What kind of men will they be? Just the kind of men we make them.

During the past year we had Junior membership ranging from 50 to 75 from the ages of 11 or 12 to 16 years.

This number with the friends they have brought in together with the larger number of senior boys who have been invited makes a total of over 200 boys with whom we have had personal dealings during this past year.

During the disagreeable rainy days of the past season as well as the cold and snowy days of the winter our rooms have been alive with boys.

On one Saturday afternoon we counted at one time 72 boys and all of whom were playing the games and reading the books placed at their disposal.

We try and teach the boys the common courtesies due their elders and to one another and also general instruction as to personal appearance and care of the body.

It may seem a strange statement to make yet however true, that there are boys in this Garden city of ours to whom a pocket knife, a comb and a piece of soap and a clean towel a horrible nightmare and the use of these articles a thing almost unknown.

We might cite an instance where a boy was asked to step to the toilet room and brush his hair and, on going out there we found him with his hair wet and holding the brush in his hand wondering whether the flat side of the brush was to pat the hair dry or the bristle side was to brush the hair up.

A corner in our toilet room has been provided with soap, towel, brush, comb and mirror and many a boy has passed through these agencies.

We maintain that a boy with his face and hands cleaned and his hair brushed is more of an ornament to our rooms than a disheveled and if messy boy who is not taught this elsewhere is it not our duty to act as an instructor.

With some of our boys we may not be able to do much along the line of Godliness but we can take a long step in that direction so we attempt it.

PHYSICAL WORK AMONG THE BOYS.

In the gym our boys have had good wholesome fun combined with good physical exercise.

Our classes have ranged from 14 to 25. The work of this department is one that demands the most careful oversight, and while some may say we have been too strict along this line it must be remembered that when 20 or 30 boys clad in the freedom of the gym suit are together upon the gym floor, justice to the boy, justice to his parents who entrust him to our care and justice to the future usefulness of the Association demands of us the most rigid supervision lest some of our boys become seriously injured.

SOCIAL WORK AMONG THE BOYS.

The social work among the boys has been enjoyed by all. Much has been done to interest the boys and several entertainments have been provided of a character helpful to the boy and in keeping with our work.

For such concerts have been given and have been well attended, having had as high as 200 in our rooms of an evening. A glance at the faces of the lads and their friends as they went out showed they had enjoyed themselves and this more than repaid those of us who labored to this end.

Their business meetings have always been held with goodly attendance and much enthusiasm, and on these occasions refreshments have been served by the boys' committee of the ladies' auxiliary.

Passing from the social and physical side we come to the religious work among the boys.

We have labored as best we knew along this line with encouraging results.

Every Sunday we have given a carefully studied talk to our boys on many varied subjects, touching the cigarette, strong drink, bad reading, personal purity, lives of great men of the Bible, events in the life of Christ, and boys of the Bible, illustrating same with the black-board, chemicals and other object lessons.

These meetings have been well attended for our boys are to be congratulated for the interest they have shown.

On Sunday, Feb. 3rd, we observed a children's Sunday, inviting the boys and girls of our neighboring Sunday schools, and gave an illustrated talk on disposition of character. The attendance at this meeting was 100 and all said they wanted to come again.

On Sunday, March 17, we organized as a result of our season's work a boys' Bible class and have entered into a most interesting study of the Bible.

Sunday, April 24th, was a memorable day in the history of the class and of the year's work. Nine of our boys made profession of conversion and said that as best we know how we will live Christian lives from today. This we believe to be among the first fruits from the seed you have been sowing in the hearts of our boys.

We have reached a point in boys' work where we dare not stop. The call for good manly boys is upon us and we must meet it.

Duty calls out to us and we believe Newton will respond. The question may be asked at this time, are there boys enough in Newton to warrant a more vigorous prosecution of this work?

To this question we reply by quoting some statistics compiled from the report of the superintendent of public schools for the year 1900.

The number of youth in our city between 13 and 18 years of age is 3,135. Of this number over one-half are boys, so that there are 500 boys to whom we owe a duty, and about whom we should throw our arms of love and service.

If these 500 boys will be the men of tomorrow, the kind of men they will be depends on what we do for and with them.

In addition to this there are over 100 boys in the city who are entering into the Association to be touched by its work; this does not include the 316 boys in our High school, many of whom are near enough to the Association to come in and answer the call.

In closing our report concerning the boys' work we wish to state that to the chairman of the boys' work committee, Mr. E. O. Childs, Jr., we owe a great deal of the success of the work which we have been able to accomplish.

His co-operation and his results greater than any other might have been. Then for your boy and my boy and the boys of other homes we enter into the work of another year, praying God's blessing to be upon us.

Before closing our report for the work of the year I cannot refrain from making mention of the noble support which we have had from the ladies of our auxiliary. This body of ladies under the leadership of Mrs. A. F. Emery have admirably served the Association in this as in other years. They have given us a debt of gratitude for the home-like appearance and comfortable furnishings of our rooms.

In our receptions and other social events they have been most charming hostesses, and indeed there are few Associations who have such an able corps of willing workers in their ladies' auxiliary as has our Association in Newton.

Let us then, if for another year we are to work together in the Association field make the work not the work of one man, or of the carrying out of his ideas alone, but the work of us all.

It is your boy and from you our friends and contributors we would gladly receive such suggestions and advice as you may feel inclined to give, assuring you that the best way is the way we wish to pursue.

For the young man of Newton, his body, his mind and his spirit, these three we bespeak your hearty support, your constant sympathy and your sincere prayers.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWIN A. LINCOLN,

Gen. Secretary.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Fourteen Years of Suffering.

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh. Edgar, of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to be around but constantly suffered. I tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by all druggists.

Rev. Ezra Hoyt Byington, D. D.

Our community was painfully shocked to learn of the sudden death of the Rev. Dr. Byington on Thursday morning last from heart failure in his home on Franklin street.

During the week he had been attending the diamond jubilee meetings of the Congregational Home Missionary Society in Tremont Temple, Boston, and it is thought that he unknowingly overtaxed his strength.

The funeral services, after prayers at his home by the Rev. Dr. Davis, were held on Monday afternoon in Eliot church, of which he was a member, in the presence of a large audience. Many prominent Congregational clergymen were present as well as those from other denominations. There were beautiful floral tributes from friends and neighbors, and from his Bible class, and the Monday Evening Club, and a floral arrangement from his family.

The pallbearers were Rev. Dr. John A. Hamilton, representing the Mutual Bible class of Eliot church; Hon. Thomas Weston, representing the Travelers' Club of Boston; Rev. Dr. S. L. B. Sprague, representing the Monday Evening Club of Newton; Rev. Dr. Henry J. Patrick, representing the Congregational Club; Rev. Dr. A. S. Twombly, representing the Newton Congregational Club; and Rev. Dr. George M. Adams, representing the N. E. Historical Genealogical Society.

The services commenced with the singing of the hymn, "Nearer my God to Thee," followed by Scripture reading by the Rev. A. H. Plumb, D. D., of Roxbury; an address by Rev. Wolcott Calkins, D. D.; the hymn, "Servant of God well done," addressed by Rev. Alexander M. Conzole, D. D., of Cambridge; the pastoral prayer by Rev. Wm. H. Davis, D. D.; the hymn, "Rock of Ages," and the benediction by the Rev. H. J. Patrick, D. D.

The addresses were upon Dr. Byington, viewed in his sympathies and perfect services as a man and friend, and upon his public work as a minister, and author, and as a public spirited citizen. In feeling the speakers told how they had known him, and the excellent character he maintained, and were eloquent and eulogistic in delivery.

The address was made the direction of Mr. Everett E. Truette church organist. The quartet was composed of Mrs. Frances Dutton Wood, soprano, Miss Emily Emerson, alto, Mr. Arthur K. Lane, tenor, and Mr. Hay B. Francis, bass, and their part was most effectively rendered.

The ushers were these members of the Young Men's Club of Eliot Congregational church: Thomas Weston, Jr., William T. Coppins, E. O. Gaudin, Jr., N. Putnam, A. W. Porter and O. T. Bourdon. The arrangements were in charge of Alderman Charles S. Ensign, secretary of the Newton Monday Evening Club.

It was one of the most dignified and impressive funeral services ever held in our city.

On Tuesday the remains were taken to New Lebanon, Vt., where at 4 o'clock church services were held before the final interment.

Dr. Byington was born in Hinesburg, Vt., Sept. 3, 1828, graduated from the University of Vermont member of the American Andover Theological Seminary in 1857. He received the degrees of A. M. in 1855, and in 1890 that of D. D. He was principal of the Underhill Vermont Academy, 1852-55; preached in Vermont, New York, and New England, 1855-69; settled in Brunswick, Me., 1870-8, and pastor of the Bowdoin College church, and in Monson, Mass., from 1889-97.

Since retirement from pastoral work he has been in great demand as a preacher and lecturer, and for some four years was professor of "Systematic Theology" at the College in New York.

He has been president of the Connecticut Valley Congregational Club as well as a member of the Alumni Association of the University of Vermont, and of the Vermont Association, one of which he has served as president.

In 1892-93 he was librarian of the N. E. Historical Genealogical Society, and in its Company, Vermont member of the American Historical Association. He was a member of the Eliot church of Newton, the Newton Ministers' Union, the Newton Congregational Club and several other societies of the Congregational denomination, as well as other organizations of less notoriety.

Of late years Dr. Byington had been engaged in home missionary and literary work. Among his published works were "The Puritan in England and New England," "The Puritan as a Colonist and Reformer," "The Christ of Yesterday, Today and Forever," also histories of the Congregational church in Hinesburg, Vermont, and of New Haven, Vt., and memoirs of the Rev. E. Hazen, D. D., and of the Rev. Henry A. Catten, D. D.

In 1858 he married Miss Ann Eliza Hoyt, who died in 1883. He married Miss Louise J. Workman, the daughter of Dr. William Workman of Worcester, who survives him. His surviving relatives are a brother and sister in Vermont and the Rev. Geo. Byington, who is settled in Westport, this state.

Dr. Byington has lived in Newton some eight years and has been one of the most popular citizens, for his kindness and generosity and public spiritedness in the best of Christian work.

His Bible class will have a memorial service on next Sunday noon, in honor of their beloved teacher.

Literary Notes

"The Way of Belinda" by Frances Weston Carruth, published by Dodd Mead & Co., New York, is a charming little story of a young girl, who like many others before her finds the path of true love anything but smooth, and proceeds to work it out to a happy end in a way that indicates strength of mind and sweetness that bids fair for the future of her prospective husband. Belinda is a girl who has been brought up in the atmosphere of most exclusive Fifth Avenue, New York, and the grand mother who tried so hard to distort the girl's character in the effort to have her see life from the same point of view, is a type that exists to the mar of many persons' lives. But though Belinda is to be a very obedient granddaughter, and to do those things which are expected, her own healthy mind and keen humanness prevent her from being goodly, and she proceeds to defy her grandmother, Madame Ronalds, with a steadiness that endears her to her readers, and makes her relative think that the world must be topsy-turvy. But the girl's character is defined in manner, and in the end the grandmother, if not seeing the error of her own way, at least gracefully accepts Belinda's. Jerry Blake, the hero, comes dangerously near to being a villain, but his character is so well defined that he is essentially a man's man, and there is nothing namby pamby about him.

How Belinda's way took her into settlement life in the lower East side the story must be read to know. But her old governess who is not old at all, and who lives there devoting her life to the children is so sweet and strong that she is a revelation to the heart and common sense. Miss Carruth's East Side atmosphere is particularly good, and written out of some experience of work of her own in a settlement in Rivington street.

Miss Carruth is to be congratulated on her drawing of characters. All are well defined and sustained, and presented with a sure touch that is prophetic of even better work to come. Ronalds, Carruth, the bachelor, cousin and man about town is delightful and one parts with him with regret. The self-made man of millions, his wife, ambitious to be a shining social light, their son Dan, who is in love with Belinda, or thinks he is, and is in a fair way to go to the dogs, his sister Lella, and Westcott the Englishman who views life seriously, are all different, and all most interesting. Taken as a whole the book is out of the common run, and of a kind that will not grow tiresome. It shows great advance over Miss Carruth's first book, "Those Dale Girls," which has made a place for itself by the truth and philosophy that are woven into the simple story. The writer may truthfully be said to have established herself as a writer of "those Dale Girls," but there are things in Belinda that make the observant reader believe that she will do something much stronger.

"The Woman's Book of Sports" by J. Parnly Paret is a practical guide by a practical parent for the amateur sports-woman. Golf, lawn tennis, sailing, swimming, bicycling and basket ball have each their chapters, and the devotee of any of these sports will find here much that will be instructive. The book is an invaluable guide for the feminine novice in sports for each game is treated from the elementary standpoint, the first rudiments of skill in all being explained in a simple and direct manner for practical use. Here will be found the condensed teachings of the best professional instructors, and any woman should quickly learn any of the games by studying its chapters. Above all, the reason for every rule is explained, and it is explained, so that many who are already skillful can learn from this book much of the underlying principles of the various amateur sports. A unique feature of this book is the chapter on men's sports from a woman's point of view—from the view-point of the spectator. Football, baseball, yacht racing, rowing and athletics are all fully explained, so that the uninitiated spectator, either man or woman, may learn enough of any of these sports in a half hour's reading of its chapter to appreciate the game to be seen. The yachting chapter has been specially prepared with an eye to the coming international races for the America's Cup, and one who wants to fully understand the maneuvering of the racing yachts without going too deeply into technical details will find this book invaluable. It is thoroughly illustrated with half-tone reproductions of the most famous yachts. 12 mo. Cloth, $1.00 net. D. Appleton & Co.

"The Smart Set" for June.

"The Smart Set" for June opens with a $1,000 prize novelette entitled "The Middle Course," by Mrs. Poultnie Bigelow. The story concerns itself with a beautiful London society woman whose husband is unsympathetic and even brutal, and who becomes sensationally involved, although innocent, with a much-lionized sculptor through a jealous woman's malicious gossip. By this story Mrs. Bigelow at once attains a very high place as a writer of smart fiction.

Mrs. M. E. W. Sherwood contributes to the number a very timely article, "The Wandering American." A humorous and intensely readable story is "The Van Kuyper Verdict," by Fanny Gregory Sanger, narrating the matrimonial misadventures of the patriarchal family of New Haslem. Gailt, a humorous contribution is an amusing story, "The Midnight Matchmaker," and there is a scintillating article by Edgar Saltus entitled "Vanity Square." Harriet Prescott Spofford writes a strong psychological study, "The Conquering Will," and a unique and fantastic $100 prize story is "In My Wife's Eye," by John Regnault Eliason. There are two stories by titled contributors in the number, "The American Widow," by Frances Winfield, and "Of Many, One," by Baroness von Hutten, both clever and entertaining tales. "The Man of One Vice," by Flora Biglow Dodge, is a humorous social study, and "The Rose of Heart's Delight," by Justus Miles Forman, is a delightful idyl of Southern France.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)
Washington, May 20, 1901.

Secretary Gage and his daughter, Mrs. Pierce, left Washington this morning with the remains of Mrs. Gage, which will be interred at Rose Hill Cemetery, Chicago. There was a brief funeral service at Secretary Gage's residence, conducted by Dr. N. A. Hillis, pastor of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, formerly of the Central church, Chicago, an old personal friend of the family. The pall bearers, with the exception of Col. Bingham, of the Army, who represented President McKinley, were officials of the Treasury Department. Sorrow for the death of Mrs. Gage is by no means confined to official circles. During her residence in Washington she endeared herself to many by her rare qualities both of heart and mind. Many telegrams of condolence were received by Secretary Gage before he left Washington, including one from the President and Mrs. McKinley and one from each member of the presidential party in San Francisco.

The turn for the better, which every one hopes will be permanent in Mrs. McKinley's condition, slightly relieved the gloom in Washington caused by Mrs. Gage's death. For many days Mrs. McKinley's death was feared, but, although it is known that Mrs. Gage had been unwell since the 4th of March, when she contracted a case of grip, by getting wet during the rain storm, her death was unexpected by the public and even by her family until a few hours before it occurred.

Capt. R. L. Howe, of the Sixth U. S. Cavalry, who was Col. of the 34th Volunteers, recently mustered out, and who is to be given a Commission as Brigadier General of Volunteers, because of his splendid record in the Philippine campaign, is in Washington. Besides rescuing Lt. Gilmore, and his men, his regiment rescued over 2,500 Spanish soldiers and officers held as prisoners by the Filipinos. Speaking of them, Col. Howe said: "The Spanish prisoners were not only did not try seriously to escape from their insurgent captors. They were largely responsible for the ideas that the insurgents entertained regarding Americans. They made the Filipinos believe that we were the very incarnation of cruelty; that their women would not be safe if the American soldiers were released. The insurgents murdered the Spanish prisoners about with them. On arriving at a town, the prisoners would be turned over to the President or Mayor, and he in turn, would quarter them among the Spanish prisoners, who were then the householders, who were given twenty of the prisoners, for example, to care for, was held responsible for their return to the President, and to the insurgent command. The Spanish prisoners were not only did not try seriously to escape from those matters and did not hesitate to shoot down the Filipinos who allowed prisoners to escape. When we rescued those Spaniards they were a sorry looking set. Many of them had almost died of starvation and were in rags; others were the insurgent uniform. We had great difficulty in keeping them from looting and destroying the Filipinos."

Senator Foraker has closed his Washington House and gone with his family to Ohio. Before leaving Washington, the Senator said he expected to take his usual part in the Ohio gubernatorial campaign, and that there was no reason to doubt the re-election of the entire republican ticket. It is understood that the Republican State convention will declare for Senator Foraker's re-election, but he is expected to be excused from discussing a matter so personal.

Ex-Senator Gorman is playing for a bigger stake than his old seat in the Senate, in the fight to re-establish his hold on the State of Maryland. He wants the Senatorship of course, if he can get it, which Maryland republicans do not believe, but it is to be only a stepping stone to the deplorable nomination for President. According to a Senator, who presumably knows all about it, Mr. Gorman has the promise of a number of influential democrats that if he can get himself back into the Senate and Maryland back into the democratic column, they will support him as a candidate for the democratic presidential nomination. This, however, is only interesting as gossip, as the nomination for President requires a constitutional treatment. Mr. Gorman's Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

New Church for New Centre.

An enthusiastic meeting of the congregation of the First Congregational church of Newton Centre was held Wednesday evening in the church parlors at which more than 200 were present.

The gathering was called to discuss plans for a new church home and it was decided to erect a wooden edifice at a cost of $100,000. The structure as designed will be of wood and probably the largest wooden church in the state. The auditorium will have a seating capacity of 900, the gallery 200, and the dining-room 400. In addition there will be eight spacious rooms for classes and other purposes.

The present site corner of Homer and Centre streets will be re-occupied. The new building is to be of Colonial architecture from the plans of Shepley, Ruten and Coolidge. The spire will measure 200 feet.

On motion of Mr. W. E. Webster the building committee, with David H. Andrews chairman, was instructed to proceed with the soliciting of contributions. Already $90,000 is available, but not until the balance is secured will ground be broken. The committee is very sanguine and expects the work of construction will begin within two years.

Discussion revealed the fact that a stone building would cost at least $150,000 and was consequently inexpedient.

Killed by Falling Down Stairs.

James Kennebec, aged 92, was killed by falling down stairs at his home 23 Hale street, Upper Falls, about 10:30 Wednesday evening. While the other members of the household were asleep Mr. Kennebec left his chamber and approached the head of the stairs. Here he mistook a step and was thrown. He fell the full length of the stairs, striking on his head. He was picked up dead. Kennebec had lived in Upper Falls for nearly 30 years. Late in the day he had been with his daughter Mrs. Gormley on Hale street.

—The only event of note here this week was the Hyde-Isola wedding. A very good joke was perpetrated on the bride and groom by Mr. Winthrop Pratt, who, under disguise drove them to Boston. He disclosed his identity when about to be "tipped" by the groom after arriving at their destination. Mr. Pratt says the joke was worth the 25 mile drive.

An Ideal Resort.

The new Rockmere Inn at Marblehead, which is shown in another column, is the only hotel on the town side of the harbor, adjoining water. The cuisine is the best and all the appointments are first class. The Inn is especially adapted for unaccompanied families. Cottages on the grounds if greater seclusion is desired. From personal acquaintance with the locality and the proprietor, we can heartily commend it as attractive to Newton people.

Macular Parker Company.

The methods of selling clothing during the fifty years of the life of this house have changed quite as much as the fashion and cut of garments; and to meet the modern idea of show windows we have sacrificed the marble front of our building — with its historic associations, ante-dating the great fire of 1872 — and have replaced it with one of glass and metal, giving the necessary windows for display of merchandise, as shown in the above engraving.

We invite the attention of discriminating purchasers to our Spring stock of Men's and Boys' Clothing and Furnishings, now complete.

Lasell Notes.

Mrs. Miriam N. Loomis lectured on Sunday afternoon on the subject "Food, the Source of Human Energy." In this lecture, the ninth in her course on "Home Sanitation," Mrs. Loomis dwelt on the value of the ordinary articles of food, bread, potatoes, both as heat producing and as nutritious articles of diet, and told what other foods might be advantageously substituted for these and in what proportions.

On Sunday morning Miss Mary A. Mullikin, whose three fine lectures on art so interested her Lasell audiences last week, gave another on "Crests in Stone," treating of famous European cathedrals, their architectural plan, symbolism and decoration, as expressing the beliefs, hopes and aspirations of those by whom and for whom they were built. Various photographic views of these cathedrals—both exteriors and interiors—were used in illustration of the lecture.

River Police Again on Duty.

Many will appreciate the establishment for another season of the Metropolitan park commission's police along the Newton banks of the Charles river. Last summer the efficiency of this policing system was clearly demonstrated.

Superintendent Albert Habberley, formerly of a district which comprises land on both shores of the Charles river from Moody street bridge, Waltham, to Hemlock Gorge reservation at Upper Falls.

The appointment of Supt. Habberley came this year. The same excellent personnel of last year's river police will however be retained with Sergt. F. B. West commanding four men. Already they have had occasion to assist in several mishaps this summer.

The patrolmen will cover their routes in row boats, while there is a launch for Sergt. West.

A number of improvements have been made this season by the commission, including the dredging of Norumbega cove near the river police station.

Chas. Ward Post Honors
Its Dead

By Fitting Exercises and a Fine Parade.

It may have been disappointing to many who looked for fine weather yesterday, but their was only one alternative and that was to make the best of it. And the best that could be said was that it was good marching weather.

It was indeed considerable of Jupiter Pluvius to refrain from making bad matters worse and keep a tight check on the showery skies. The G. A. R. were just as well treated as the Speedway paraders and if anything, better.

Following out its custom details were sent out yesterday morning by Charles Ward post to decorate graves in the different Newton cemeteries and at Mr. Auburn. At noon there was a lunch in fire headquarters, Newton Centre, and the afternoon procession followed. Its make up: Two Platoons of Police in charge of Lieutenant Fred M. Mitchell.

Chief Marshal. Chief of Staff

Adjutant General. Aids.

Carter's Band, T. M. Carter, Leader.

Clad in Guards, Co. C. B. Regiments, M. V. M., Captain E. R. Springer.

Charles Ward Post 62, Grand Army of the Republic, George Hill, Commander.

Disabled Comrades in Carriages.

Mrs. A. E. Cunningham Tent No. 2, Daughters of Veterans, Miss May G. Mellop, President.

High School Band, Sergeant A. H. Spear, Leader.

High School Battalion.

Captain L. Kronkite, Commanding.

His Honor E. L. Pickard, Mayor.

City Government in carriages.

The line of march was from Willow street to Centre street, to Beacon street, to Walnut street to Newton Cemetery. Here there were services at the base of the soldiers monument, after which the procession proceeded to Newtonville.

There was a review in Newtonville square followed by a dinner in Temple hall where the post members were the hosts.

Commander Geo. Hill presided at the dinner and excellent speeches were made by Mayor Pickard, Ex-mayor Cobb, Aldermen Baily and Weeks, Miss Mellop of the D. V. C. Chief Marshal W. A. Wetherbee, Hon. G. D. Gilman, Capt. E. R. Springer, Col. G. H. Benson, Rev. M. Seabury, Commander W. W. Castle of Brighton post, and Winfield S. Slocum. An excellent dinner was served to 275 by Caterer Hyslop.

Members of Thomas Barnett Camp, Legion of Spanish War Veterans, declined to parade because Charles Ward post had not included the camp's auxiliary in its invitation to participate in the day's exercises. The incident was very unfortunate and is much to be regretted.

Hospital Tea.

Friends interested in the Newton Hospital are invited to visit and inspect the buildings on Thursday afternoon, June 6. Tea will be served in the home for nurses, from three to five o'clock.

Strike of Carpenters Threatened.

At a meeting of the carpenters of this city, Watertown and Waltham, held last Friday evening in A. O. U. W. hall, West Newton, it was voted that on and after June 1, eight hours shall constitute a day's labor without reduction of pay.

A notice to the above effect was sent to contractors and builders and at a mass meeting held Tuesday evening in Cole's hall, Centre street, information was given that several contractors had signified their willingness to comply with the demand.

Both meetings were enthusiastic and a number of non-union men were made members of the local union.

If a strike is decided upon for to-morrow very near 1,000 men will be affected.

Sought in Vain for a Home.

A 12-year-old girl named Mary Johnson was sent to Newton, Wednesday, by her aunt, Kate Hayes of Boston, with a note directed to no one in particular. It asked that the little girl be given a home as the writer had taken care of her 9 years and was unable to do so longer.

Mary was brought by a Boston elevated car conductor into police station 1. The patrolman in charge notified the charity department and the little girl was questioned.

She said she did not know at what number Albany street she lived. Her mother had died 7 years ago and her father was living in Kansas City but was not caring for her. Her aunt was her only friend. It was stated in the note that the girl's grandfather, James Hayes, had been a resident of Newton 30 years, and this the little one affirmed.

It was finally decided to place her in the Newton almshouse for the present. To-day she is to be turned over to Dr. Derby of the state board of charity as a neglected child.

NONANTUM.

D. R.

On the morning of Memorial Day, the members of Sarah Hull Chapter, D. R. met in the old cemetery on Centre street, Newton, to place upon the graves of Gen. and Sarah Hull tokens of remembrance and respect.

The gloom of mist and cloud gave a more than usual impressiveness to the occasion. In the absence of recent and vice-regent, Miss Helen Wells of the Memorial Day committee, took charge of the exercises. Rev. F. B. Hornbrooke, D. D. offered prayer and also gave a brief sketch of the military career of Gen. Hull who served his country in the Revolutionary War and also in the war of 1812.

History has vindicated every act of that career and has shown that he was brave, ready for every emergency, and faithful to his duty at all times. Gen. Hull fully appreciated the strong and womanly character of his wife and said of her that she was the ray and comfort of his life.

Mrs. Sarah Fuller Reed, granddaughter of Gen. and Madam Hull, was present and gave interesting reminiscences of the family. America was sung and the benediction pronounced by Dr. Hornbrooke.

Whooping Cough.

A woman who has had experience with a disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: "Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their playfulness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup when whoops. - JESSIE PINKLEY HALL, Springfield, Mo. This remedy is for sale by all druggists."

What was Abraham's birthplace? Who was Jesus' grandfather? If you could remember these and recall the name of Ishabeneb where his notable deed was described, or if any of your group of three or four could recall them or could find them immediately in a Bible without an aid, then you would have a key to some of the puzzles enjoyed at the society of the Golden Rule on May 23. The earlier part of the entertainment was given to naming the biblical characters and scenes represented in pictures pinned to the wall. At the close of the evening the arrangements of seats for refreshments was settled by the distribution of slips, each bearing the name of a book of the Bible with the request that the recipients should take their places so that the books would come in the proper order.

In Memoriam.

As it hath pleased God to remove from our midst, one whom as a class, we have regarded as a teacher and a wise leader in spiritual thought and discussion, it is fitting that some expression, simple but sincere, should be given to the feelings uppermost in our minds, as we come together and realize that as teacher and scholars we shall not meet again this side "the Curtains of Solomon." Not carelessly, but with close regard to its true meaning, would we use the familiar phrase "It hath pleased God." Not as a mere Ruler and Orderer of events in the lives of men, not because His pleasure must and will be meted out, but because the Father in Heaven is kind and loving toward his faithful followers to a greater degree than we can understand, it becomes to Him a pleasant thing to welcome to the mansions prepared for them, His dear children when in the fullness of time for them He claims them to Himself. And now that we shall confer no more on earth with our beloved and trusted teacher, let us resolve:—To follow his example in adhering to a firm belief in the teachings of the Scriptures, accepting them as containing the very truth in both their natural and super natural revelations: To honor the house of God and attend its services as faithfully as did the good man who has gone in and out amongst us, never absenting himself. It would seem from any of the regular services of the church unless from necessity, and to present to others a cheerful face, would commend her to the compassionate and radiant life of the beloved one, who still finds blest employment "mid the bright mansions of the Father's house, and roams the golden streets of the city that lieth four-square, the pearly gates whereof are never closed.

"May we not meet thee on that peaceful shore; The parting words she pass our lips no more!"

"What allied thee, O my Brother, that so quick Thou seestest opportunity to leave us? Sure not of duty nor of friends a sick, Thou suffered Death of thy dear face because us."

"Thy heart did fail thee?" true, yet 'twas not so. No! failed thy heart; thy Master's task well ended; Brave was thy fight, fair the life below, O Brother, now to nobler life ascended!

"Thy heart did fail thee?" but thy larger heart, Panting for higher knowledge, beauty, art, Service divine, where thy Saviour liveth.

"Farewell, O Brother! Sometimes have we thought, When we should pass into the last long sleeping, Thy strong love-words would help our loved ones weeping."

"God hath his wisest will! O henceforth thine To stand on sunnier side the River, meeting Thy fond ones, one by one, the countersign To give and thus old fashioned jubilation greeting!"

This was the tribute paid to the memory of the late Rev. Dr. Byington by his Bible class on Sunday last in Eliot church, prepared by Mrs. Harriet A. Cheever, Miss Elizabeth Spear and Miss Ariette Howe. Remarks were made by Rev. Dr. J. A. Hamilton, Messrs. C. S. Ensign and G. D. Gilman and Rev. Dr. H. J. Patrick who closed with prayer. The deceased's last sermon from Acts 1:9, was preached in the Allston Congregational church on May 12, and he died suddenly on an excursion day. A floral memorial was placed upon his chair, and this memorial service was a fitting and loving tribute to a good and faithful teacher.

Fought For His Life.

"My father and sister both died of Consumption," writes J. T. Weatherwax, of Wyandotte, Mich., "and I was saved from the same frightful fate only by Dr. King's New Discovery. An attack of Pneumonia left an obstinate cough and very severe lung trouble, which an excellent doctor could not help, but a few months' use of this wonderful medicine made me as well as ever and I gained much in weight." Infallible for Coughs, Colds and all Throat and Lung trouble. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00 at Arthur Hudson's drug store. Trial bottles free.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

Washington, May 27, 1901. Senator Lodge is to be made chairman of the Senate committee on Foreign relations, as soon as the next session of congress opens, and will at once move for the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty. That is the sum of substance of current gossip among prominent republicans, and if that program is carried out, it will necessarily bring the Isthmian canal question to an immediate issue in congress. The chairmanship of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee has been vacant since the death of Senator Davis. Senator Frye has been acting chairman, and as the senior republican on the committee, would become chairman when the committees are reorganized at the next session; but his duties as president pro tem of the senate, and his intention to devote much time to the new Ship Subsidy bill, which he will introduce, will so fully occupy him that he does not, it is said, desire the chairmanship of the Foreign Relations committee. Senator Cullom is the next republican on the committee, but his interest in the legislation likely to come before the Interstate commerce committee, of which he is now chairman, will, it is thought, cause him to withdraw his claim in favor of Senator Lodge. Should Senator Lodge become chairman of the Foreign Relations committee, it would be a decided setback for the Panama canal influence, as he is strongly in favor of its construction.

Secretary Root has listened to statements of representatives of the five cadets dismissed from West Point, last week, with his approval, for insubordination, and has informed the young men very handsomely that, while he would see that their statements were investigated, he was perfectly satisfied that their punishment was just and fully deserved and hadn't the slightest idea that the investigation would result in any change in the sentences. These young men chose a very unfortunate time to get into trouble with the authorities at the Military academy, as ever since the disclosure of the Congressional investigation of hazing at that institution, there has been a feeling, in official circles that heroic methods would be necessary in dealing with the next serious infraction of the rules. These five young men, as it is known, who were suspended, happened to get mixed up in that infraction, and the impression in Washington is general that they are wasting their time in trying to get released.

Secretary Gage resumed his duties this morning. He has long ago learned that the best remedy for sorrow and trouble of any kind is to get the brain fully employed with hard work.

The reported alliance of John R. McLean and James Kilbourne, for the purpose of preventing Tom L. Johnson getting control of the Ohio gubernatorial state convention has furnished much gossip for the politicians who happen to be in Washington. It shows how impossible all the talk about democratic harmony in Ohio has been.

Everett is in readiness at the White House for the return of President and Mrs. McKinley, who will be warmly welcomed back. Every b. d. is a state of thankfulness for Mrs. McKinley's improved condition.

Mr. D. W. Martin, of Cal., who is now in Washington said of that portion of President McKinley's stay in that state which came under his personal observation: "His tour up the state was a great personal triumph, and everywhere the people went away charmed with his gracious conduct. At Pacific Grove where he met the veterans of the Grand Army, the president was introduced as their comrade. He talked to them after the fashion of a comrade, and he had not been speaking fifteen minutes before he had half the veterans in tears at renewed outbursts of fervid words."

In reply to a letter from Capt. Hunter, of the Third U. S. Cavalry, now in the Philippines, saying that a number of his men whose terms were about to expire, would re-enlist if assured that they would return to the United States when their term was ordered home, the following communication was sent from the Adjutant General's office, with the approval of Secretary Root: "Re-enlistment does not place the soldiers in the category of long-service men. It is contemplated by the secretary of war, that when the new conditions brought about by the Army Re-organization bill adjust themselves, you may come back to it is not the policy of the government to continue officers and men on foreign service for the mere reason that their fathers' physique has given them immunity from disease. This will mean that officers and men will follow the fortunes of the organization to which they may be assigned."

A report just received by the department of state, from the U. S. Consul General at St. Petersburg, gives the figures in detail, of the commerce between the United States and Russia, for the calendar year 1900. We bought from Russia, mostly raw materials, $1,730,280 worth of goods, and we sold Russia goods to the value of $2,651,515, of which raw cotton was the principal article, its value being $18,413,310.

"When we say we guarantee Vinol, our new strengthener and appetite creator," states Mr. Hubbard, the Pharmacist, "we mean that if you are not benefited after taking it for any of the ailments for which it is recommended, you may come back to us and we will refund your money."

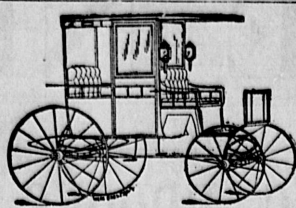

Medfield Celebration.

The two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the incorporation of our neighboring town of Medfield, 1651, previously a part of Dedham, will be celebrated June 6, 1901. This beautiful township, frequented by Inness, the landscape painter, and other artists, has a noble record. The native place of Hannah Adams, the historian and first tenant of Mt. Auburn; Lowell Mason, the famous reformer in church music, and other strong men and women scattered over the United States, Judge Bishop, Geo. H. Ellis, Geo. M. Fiske, Allen brothers and others of Newton. The very general interest of towns and individuals in those who have gone before, to whom they are so greatly indebted is doing much in awakening a laudable pride of ancestry and true patriotism. Grand procession at 9 a.m. Literary exercises at Unitarian church at 11, open to all. Banquet at town hall at 1 p.m. A charming drive of 12 miles from Newton. N. T. A.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Fourteen Years of Suffering.

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh Edgar, of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to get about, but constantly suffered. I tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned. Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by all druggists."

EXECUTIVE SESSIONS.

Under the caption of "Star Chamber Proceedings" we commented last week on the custom of the school board in the transaction of public business. We do not desire to be misunderstood in this connection. There can be no question but that the consideration of appointments and removals, with the inevitable scrutiny of the acts and personalities of hundreds of teachers, should be regarded as "under the rose." What we believe, however, is that the votes on these as well as other matters should be taken in open meeting.
Why should not the people of the Upper Falls have a right to know who favored and who opposed the granting of their recent petition. It is their undoubted right, and only the arbitrary customs of the school board, permitted through public indifference, allow the present conditions to exist.By all means, Messrs. school committee, discuss the reputation of your teachers behind closed doors but when your course of action is decided, stand up like men and let your constituents know where you are.

ONE SESSION.

We commend the excellent report of Supt. Fitch upon the one session experiment, which we print in full in this issue.
We approve of the conservative spirit manifested, and the recommendation of local option.There is strong feeling in the Bigelow district against the one session plan in the primary grades and with which we deeply sympathize.The arguments on each side are so thoroughly known that it is needless to repeat them at this time, but we trust the school board will make haste slowly in extending the one session plan.THE Eastman trial costs the County of Middlesex over $14,000 of which the City of Newton pays about 11 per cent. It would have been better in more ways than one if Judge Almy's decision of "no probable cause" last summer, had been allowed to stand.The advocates of daily medical inspection of schools will be pleased with the letter of Dr. H. Lincoln Chase, agent of the board of Health of Brookline, which we have clipped this week from the Brookline Chronicle.The decision of the Supreme Court on the insular cases will be received with respect, but we rather fancy that the bulk of the people are more in sympathy with the clear cut opinion of Judge Harlan.In view of the G. A. R. golf controversy in Chelsea, it would be interesting to learn how many people regard May 30th as a "holly" day and how many observe it as a holiday.The "Wall of a Taxpayer" published in another column, will be appreciated by the average citizen.Newton will remember Senator Nutt's vote in favor of the mill tax bill.

Y. M. C. A.

Much interest is being manifested by the local association in the jubilee convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of the United States and Canada, to be held in Mechanics' hall, Boston, June 11 to 15. This convention will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the first Young Men's Christian Association in Montreal and in Boston in 1851.The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors was held on Monday evening, April 27th. The following officers were re-elected: President, MRS. M. Say-ford, Vice Pres., Mr. Allan C. Emery.There will be a special business meeting of the Junior Department Saturday afternoon, June 1st, at 4 p. m. Plans for the Boys' outing are to be presented.Next Sunday evening there will be an illustrated stereopticon lecture on Y. M. C.
A. work by State Secretary, J. A. Dammitt at the M. E. church at Newtonville.

Police Paragraphs.

Beginning to-morrow daily inspection of vacant houses by night and day patrolmen will be made. This plan was worked very successfully last year and cannot fail to prove of great advantage.Now that Memorial Day is over the bi-weekly drills will be discontinued.

for the ensuing year: Geo. W. Pratt 192,

City Hall Notes.

In a competition of 18 for the Thompsonville school house, the plans of Walter R.
Forbush, architect, have been accepted.The street department is at work on the Crafts street drain.Street Commissioner Ross has added the title of grandfather to his other honorable titles.Mr. C. C. Butler of the Woodland park, had charge of the luncheon served the city government on Memorial Day.On Monday, Water Commissioner Whit-ting opened bids for the construction of the new covered reservoir on Waban Hill.
The bids are approximately estimated as follows: Stone & Thurston (b) $36, (c) $33, (1) $35, (2) $35; Simpson Bros.
Corp. (1) $35, (2) $34; T. Stuart & Son Co.
$35; Wm. H. Mangus & Son, and Warren Cros. Co. $39. On the above figures the entire cost will be about $36,000.

THE WALL OF THE TAX-PAYER.

O, Good City Hall,
Pay list to our call,
Shut down on extravagant matters,
Don't give them a chance,
Not even a glance,
Or our wealth will soon be in tatters.New school houses fine,
In each ward must shine,
Be careful of frills and of extras,
More room can be had,
And all be made glad,
With plain brick, no fads or gold fixtures.Some ask for a rule
That doctors in school
Each day the poor children may worry,
The teachers first pick,
The child that looks sick,
And home he is sent in a hurry.New playgrounds, galore,
This fad's on the floor,
With a running track, ball-field and gym,
A swimming tank, too,
Pray save us, if true
Or the taxes, our eyesight will dim.The firemen, too, Think more is their due,
For one day in eight they are working,
With most of us here,
Two weeks in the year
Is all we can spare without shirking.O, Good fathers, all,
Pay list to our call,
Shut down on extravagant orders,
Just give us a chance,
In wealth to advance,
Low taxes will draw to our borders.

A Lasting Impression of a Woman.A young man's first and most permanent impression of a woman is often the appearance of her feet.
This is not a Tennysonian thought, there is nothing idyllic about it, for most practical thoughts are commonplace, and most men are practical and commonplace. When a sweet and pretty girl in an exquisite dove gray gown sweetly strolls along the Common malls, she feels satisfied, not knowing that every man who passes by condemns her if her shoes are ill-fitting and not neat. The effect of a good figure in a modish gown is never destroyed if "miladi" wears Sorosis Shoes, for they keep their neat, trig shape, and the heel being comfortable and sensible, never yields to the side wearing tendency (so shocking in its effect) of other shoes.

The Sorosis

is a foot covering for women; constructed in harmony with modern hygienic laws; embodying all the ease features of a man's shoe, yet neat and attractive, and sold at the never varying price of $3.50 the pair, in all styles.

Norumbega Park.

Norumbega Park presents a more beautiful spectacle than ever in its fifth season. The opening was as usual on Decoration Day, May 30, and all records for famous large attendances on the inaugural day were beaten. Dame Nature, who has always seemed to be particularly partial to this delightful resort of summer amusement and recreation has been more lavish in bestowing her charms this season than ever before. On the other hand the handwork of the landscape gardener is to be seen everywhere, beautifying and spreading comfort in the matter of shady paths and nooks, rustic retreats, shrubbery and flower displays.

Half the pleasure of going to Norumbega Park is the trip on the big open electric of the Commonwealth Avenue Street Railway company. The fare to the park and return on these cars, including admission to the park is but 15 cents.

Improvements and additions at Norumbega are to be noted everywhere. Particularly noticeable is the Roof, Garden which tops the restaurant. It affords an excellent view of the surrounding country by day, and at night it is brilliantly illuminated. The mysterious chalet is equipped with electric fans, and the music of the Mully's orchestra again this season plays on the veranda.

The rustic theatre, where performances are given every afternoon and evening, is more attractive than ever. The management still holds to the policy of maintaining 2000 free seats for these high class vaudeville performances. The program in the open air theatre next week, commencing Monday afternoon, June 3, is J. W. Gorman's Olympia, which includes: Carr and McDonald, Madeline Burdette, Provo, Lawson and Namon, and Gallagher and Barrett.

Death of Edwin Field.

Mr. Edwin Field, a well known Newtonville resident, died Monday afternoon at his home on Washington street after a brief illness. Death was due, it is believed, to heart failure. Mr. Field had been about the street day before. He was 72 years old.

Born in Brockton, Mr. Field secured his early education in that place. When quite a young man he established a dry goods business in Brookline.

He was quite successful but was forced to give up and remove to California. After several years' residence there he came to Newtonville. This was about 30 years ago.

During his residence here Mr. Field was much interested in local affairs, though he never held public office. He was an earnest member of the New Church Swedenborgian. He is survived by a wife and daughter, the latter, Mrs. E. W. Sampson.

The Medical Inspection of Schools.

To the Editor of the Chronicle:—

I have read with much interest your editorial of last week on the Medical Inspection of Public Schools in Newton. Will you kindly publish the following imperfect account of what has been attempted in the same line of preventive work in Brookline?

MEDICAL INSPECTION OF PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

It is generally admitted that it is through schools more than in any other way that children are exposed to the more common infectious diseases. The medical inspection of public schools was begun in Brookline on December 11th, 1894. Boston has the honor of being the first municipality in this country to establish this inspection, which was begun in November of the same year, 1894.

Diphtheria was unusually prevalent in Boston that fall and was the immediate cause for this action of the Board of Health. The agent of the Board was authorized to arrange for and supervise the inspections, and the morning after the vote of the Board, the six medical inspectors had been selected and assigned to their respective schools, then fifteen in number. The school department co-operated with the Board of Health in this measure and continues to do so most cordially, the trust officer being of great assistance. Excepting the Newton street school, which is not in a densely populated district, and has but twelve or fourteen pupils, all the public schools of the town are systematically inspected, daily, or less frequently, according to the requirements of the situation. During some periods since 1894 the inspection has been wholly suspended, because the freedom of the town from contagious diseases seemed to warrant it.

Soon after the parochial school was opened, the Board of Health offered it the same medical inspections that the public schools have, and the offer was accepted. At the beginning of the Agent of the Board called a meeting of the medical inspectors and the substitutes, and explained the system in use in Boston. The inspection is made a little after nine a. m., that being the time suggested by the Superintendent of Schools.

The teacher in charge of the room reports any pupil who seems to be in any way ill, and in addition to this the doctor makes a general survey of all the children in each room. If a child seems to be ailing, the Inspector advises the teacher as to whether the child should be allowed to remain in school or not, and in the latter event, sends a note to the child's parents on a blank provided for the purpose, stating that the child is ill, and whether in his opinion the family physician should be sent for.

In examining the throats of pupils, near, inexpensive wooden tongue depressors are used, and the teacher is instructed to burn the depressor in a special receptacle. This is an important precaution and forestalls criticism. When necessary the doctor makes a bacteriological culture from the pupil's throat, thus detecting as early as possible the cause of the sore throat. A very necessary measure in light cases of diphtheria in crowded school rooms. Sometimes all the throats in a room are examined with or without cultures, according to the number of cases in the room. It is possible to know whether or not it is safe for a child to attend school. Such children as are infected with diphtheria, even if not ill are thus discovered, and are excluded from school. If a child is at home, they may return to school without endangering the health of other children. At first this method caused the inspectors and the parents to be uneasy, but now it is a better understanding on the part of parents and children, who notice also that all are treated alike, there has been practically no friction at all.

SMALL-POX.

The Public Statutes require that no child who has not been duly vaccinated shall be admitted to a public school, and upon a certificate signed by a practicing physician stating that such child is an unfit subject for vaccination. The Medical Inspectors, with the co-operation of the school department, have now ascertained the condition of each child as to vaccination, and every school room is provided with a pack of card certificates which show the exact status of every pupil in the room in this regard. As a result of these inspections, children have been largely removed from exposure to scarlet fever, diphtheria, small pox, measles, mumps, whooping cough, and chicken pox, and, consequently, besides two or three contagious parietal affections notably pediculosis capitis (lice). In some of the primary schools this last trouble has prevailed to such an extent, and the need of proper treatment was so urgent, that an exception was made in this one instance to the rule forbidding the giving of prescriptions, and each child needing it was given a prescription to buy and properly apply a good supply of crude petroleum, and with excellent results.

Besides children who must be excluded from school for the benefit of others, there are many who suffer from non-contagious, though perhaps severe and disabling diseases, or who are mentally or physically below the normal standard. Though the teachers are advised as to the more urgent cases of this class, by far the greater portion of the Inspector's time and attention has always been given to the detection and prevention of infectious diseases.

Another important advantage secured by having a competent oculist make a systematic examination, at least once, of all the children in the grammar school grades, for in many cases the results of uncorrected eyesight are more serious than the usual headache, and nervous debility.

Among the good results of the inspection there has been noticed an improvement in the cleanliness of some of the children, and in the neatness and cleanliness of their clothing, thus simplifying the problem of school room ventilation, though we have not yet put shower baths into the basement of our new school buildings, as Boston and some other cities have wisely done.

Still another result noticed after the beginning of school inspection is that many of the less careful parents now keep at home their children at all ill, rather than not only to the children at school, if the illness proves to be contagious, but in any event a benefit to the sick child.

Another important advantage secured by the inspections is that parents and teachers have come to know that as a result of the systematic search, with cultures or otherwise, for light or undetected cases of contagious diseases, with disinfection with formaldehyde when necessary, it is safe for the children to continue in school in time of threatened or actual epidemic. As a consequence, during the school year just ending, though diphtheria was unusually prevalent in the town (as well as in all surrounding towns), not a school nor even a single room had to be closed for a single day, either by order of the authorities or through apprehension of parents.

The inspections are paid from the Health appropriation, the Inspector receiving one dollar for each inspection, and having found at all ill, rates not only to the children at school, if the illness proves to be contagious, but in any event a benefit to the sick child.

Inspectors are occasionally authorized to make cultures at the homes of poor pupils, and of others who cannot well afford a physician, also, when so directed by the Agent of the Board, to make free cultures for release from diphtheria, and in certain cases to give protective antitoxin when desired to persons exposed to that disease. Experience has shown the practical value of these measures.

At present inspections are made once a week in some of the schools, and twice a week in the others, according to the local conditions.

BOY'S CAMP,

AGRICULTURE.

HOW IT WILL BE REPRESENTED AT THE PAN-AMERICAN.

The Most Elaborate Display of All Interests Connected With the Soil, Embracing Every Product of the Farm and Articles Manufactured Therefrom.

Since prehistoric times agriculture has been the most important industry in all American countries. In the United States about one-half of the population is now engaged in some occupation connected with the cultivation of the soil. With proper consideration of these vast and growing interests, the managers of the Pan-American have dedicated more than half of the Exposition space to the products of the farm and the many articles manufactured therefrom.

The Agricultural building is one of the largest and handsomest on the grounds, while the Dairy building, with its contents, is a fair in itself. Sixteen separate buildings are devoted to live stock besides a model stable that is practically and scientifically in advance of anything so far attempted.

Besides all this, one-quarter of the great Liberal Arts building is devoted to food products, and many of the exhibits in other parts of the building may be traced directly or indirectly to the soil.

The Stadium with its one-quarter mile track will be devoted to certain times to the exhibition of live stock, including many kinds of animals not generally considered in the latitude of Buffalo as belonging to the farm.

One of the most elaborate Horticultural buildings ever planned stands in a conspicuous section of the grounds, which will be stocked with such a luxurious assortment of fruits from every section of North and South American countries as to easily outclass any former attempt in this direction.

Forestry is represented in a characteristic building, built of logs, which is in itself typical of nature's spontaneous outgrowth for the preservation and conservation of moisture. Exhibits contained in this odd structure will show how subtle is the connection between successful farming and a proper forest preserve.

In the windmill section will be shown many varieties of the latest and best samples of this useful power generator, together with useful applications of this inexpensive energy to the relief and profit of the farmer in many branches of agricultural business.

We now come to the Machinery and Transportation building, which is 500 feet long by 350 feet in width, every the higher places and deposits the earth thus collected in the lower places or depressions. A comparatively level field is thus reduced to a series of tables called water levels. These tables are then irrigated at intervals, as required, during the growing season, as the water on ground thus prepared may be made to flow even in drill marks.

Underdraining is often a necessary accompaniment which adds considerably to the expense, though, if properly done on suitable soil, the resultant crops may be doubled or even increased threefold.

Another great improvement in specific machinery is in facilities for handling the great American corn crop in its varied branches, kinds and grades. This has attained such a degree of perfection that a crop that was once manipulated entirely by manual labor is now in some places never touched by hand, from the planting of the seed to the weighing of the yield.

It would be difficult indeed to mention one item in a subject like this that would be of more general interest than others. The thousands, we might say millions, who visit the Exposition must each make their individual selection and follow where their inclination leads them. If they have time enough at their disposal, they will, no doubt, find what interests them most, and, no matter what it is, they will find it represented in a manner that is at once comprehensive and valuable.

HERBERT SHEARER.

PORTO RICO'S RESOURCES.

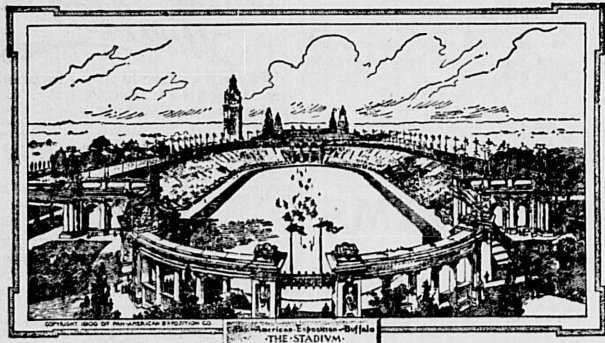

They Will Be Exhibited at the Pan-American Exposition.

The enterprise of Porto Rico is evidenced by the preparations that are now being made for its participation in the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo next summer.

The residents of this new possession of the United States are wide awake to the fact that their interests will be well served by a display of the island's resources. An appropriation of $10,000 has been made for a building and an exhibit. The building, which will have a desirable location in the Court of State and Foreign buildings, will be in the form of a kiosk, a one story structure, with a cupola, 55 feet in height.

The building will be constructed entirely of native woods of all varieties, the floor being of hard wood tiling. It will be quite imposing, the Moorish style of architecture being followed.

In the kiosk will be shown the work of women, such as embroidery, drawn and lace work, etc., in which the women of the island excel. There will also be a coffee and cigar stand, where Porto Rican coffee will be made and served by charming Porto Rican señoritas.

foot of which is replete with elaborate decorations in both design and color. No machinery exhibit ever had such provision made for its reception, and no former collection in this line, whether farm or general, ever merited so much attention.

This whole building will be alive with motion of every known variety—circular, oscillating, compensating, cam, eccentric ellipse, epicycloid and almost every other motion known in modern mechanics. Most of these intricacies will be found embodied in the different mechanical movements that are instrumental in lightening the American farmer's labor, thereby placing him at an advantage in his inevitable competition with cheap labor in Europe.

Machinery that is more intimately connected with farm work is housed in the Stadium, as this structure alone affords sufficient room for the size and diversity of this exhibit. Floor space to the amount of 50,000 square feet in this modern coliseum is provided with electric power for the purpose of driving the many agricultural machines displayed in this building.

Machinery is represented here that prepares the soil, sows the seed, cultivates the growing plants, even to weeding the hoe crop, and finally harvests the ripened product, separates the kernel from the stalk and divides the seeds into grades, as required.

Lichens and mosses from the far North, hardy north temperate grains, fruits and roots, temperate American Indian corn, winter wheat and their allied products, as well as Southern rice, Kafir corn, cotton and a thousand other modern necessities, will all have their respective connecting mechanism representations in this elaborate machinery section that is destined to tell the story of our modern diversified country life in a much more eloquent manner than our vocabulary is capable of doing. Besides these general divisions, specific cases are carefully considered. Irrigation is such an important adjunct to modern farming, even in the sections that are not considered arid, that special machinery is now in practical use that a few years ago was never thought of.

For leveling the ground a machine called a plane is used. It is simply a huge bit, or knife, of steel suspended on a long frame, supported "fore and aft" by wheels. In use it shaves off

The kiosk will also contain the offices of the Porto Rican commissioners, and it will be a general headquarters for information concerning the country.

The island will have 1,200 square feet of space in the Agriculture building and the same space in the Horticulture building for exhibits.

Most of the space allotted to the island in the Agriculture building will be occupied by a comprehensive exhibit of sugar, coffee and tobacco in various stages of growth and manufacture.

Nearly every species of plants and trees of the island which will bear transportation will be sent to Buffalo. Besides everything produced and manufactured on the island, instructive tables of information have been prepared which will be invaluable to agriculturists and others intending to invest in Porto Rico.

Mexico at the Exposition.

Among the interesting features of the Mexican exhibit at the Pan-American Exposition will be the Mexican Government Mounted Band and Mounted "Rurales," the personnel of which will be as follows:

A chief, with an adjutant officer. Fifty musicians, with a commanding officer.

Twenty mounted "rurales," with a mounted commanding officer. A corporal and four infantry soldiers, a corporal and four mounted soldiers, a corporal and four artillery soldiers and a corporal and four engineers. This group will be commanded by a second class captain.

The total force will be as follows: A chief, 4 officers, 90 soldiers and 26 horses. They will be quartered in the "Streets of Mexico."

There will be separate departments for the chief, for the cavalry and for the rest of the force.

Stadium For Sports.

Handsome recognition of the popular sports of the Western Hemisphere has been made by the Pan-American Exposition. The Stadium is the largest and most beautiful arena for sports ever erected in America. It covers a plot 678½ by 450½ feet and has a quarter mile track with a width of 20 feet and ground area ample for the requirement of all the events contemplated. The seating capacity is 12,000.

CO-EDUCATION POPULAR.

There are 15,000 More Girls in Co-educational Colleges.

A statement has lately been made, and widely circulated, that more girls are studying in separate colleges for women than in coeducational colleges; and the conclusion is drawn that the majority of American girls, or of their parents, prefer separate education for women.

Hon. William T. Harris, National Commissioner of Education, furnishes statistics showing that in America the vast majority of the young men and women who are now taking the higher education are taking it in common. He writes:

"In 1898-'99 the undergraduate college students are reported as follows:

Men	Women
161 Institutions for men	26,630
366 Co-educational institutions	36,938
13 Colleges for women	4,343
132 Female Colleges and seminaries	10,637

"108 of these are in Southern States. By this you will see that the co-educational institutions enroll 10,000 more men than the institutions exclusively for men, and also enroll 4,000 and upwards more women than the thirteen colleges for women of the same rank as the colleges for men, added to the 132 female colleges and seminaries which do not have a course of study equal to the average college course of study for men. The number of women in coeducational institutions is nearly 15,000 greater than the number in the thirteen colleges for women that hold the same rank as the best colleges for men."

These facts have a direct bearing on the suffrage question. While many distinguished friends of equal suffrage have come from separate colleges, there can be no doubt that coeducation tends toward a belief in equal rights. The young man who has studied side by side with young women during a four years' course gets rid of any superstition about women's want of brains; and the young woman who has taken part with young men in class meetings and class elections finds out that the American man is not a savage monster whom it would be dangerous to meet at the polls, but a good comrade and a chivalrous friend.—Alice Stone Blackwell.

Women's School Vote in Chicago.

It has been widely heralded that in Chicago only between two and three thousand women registered to vote for a trustee of the State University. Not long ago a table was published showing the school vote of men in a number of Illinois towns. In one town only two men voted, and in several others the record was not much better. But no attention is paid to this fact. It is felt that if only one man in a town is public-spirited enough to vote, he should have the privilege of doing so.

Mrs. Catharine Vaughn McCulloch, of Chicago, was lately asked why the educational vote of women in that city had fallen off. She answered that the large registration and vote of women the first year after the right was granted had caused both the political parties ever since to nominate good candidates, and to put women on their tickets; hence the women felt that the educational interests were safe whichever side won. An examination of the official ballot this year shows that the fact of women's power to vote, even without a large registration of women, influenced the seven parties in Illinois each to nominate one or more women for a trustee of the State University. The republicans and democrats each nominated one woman, the prohibitionists, social democrats and United Christians each nominated two, and the United Reform party for direct legislation nominated three.

Roosevelt on State Licensed Vice.

The National Purity Alliance, the National American Woman Suffrage Association, and the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, have sent protests to the Secretary of War against the European system of licensing houses of ill fame, which has been introduced in the Philippines by the United States military authorities. Theodore Roosevelt's attention was called last year to the demoralizing results of this system abroad. In a letter lately published in the New York Philanthropist, he writes:

"At one time I used to acquiesce when people said that the evil should be licensed for the purpose of controlling it. Since you called my attention to the result in Paris and Belgium, I have made some inquiries, and cannot sufficiently express my horror of the system."

State Industrial School for Girls. The New York State Federation of Women's Clubs has been trying in vain to secure the founding of a state industrial school for girls. The New York Evening Post says:

"The apparent impracticability of getting the State Legislature to make an appropriation for an experimental training school for girls has caused the Federation committee entrusted with this work to turn elsewhere for help. Private enterprise promises to come to the rescue, but the scheme is not yet perfected."

The women of Colorado tried to get an appropriation for a state industrial school for girls, but tried in vain till they obtained the ballot. The very next legislature voted the appropriation. Here is an object lesson for the women of New York.

At the Polls.

A modest woman vote! and stand with me! About a window! Dear, you know me better! "I saw you do the same thing often." "When?" "Why, at the office, when you mailed a letter!"

—Margaret B. Harvey.

Settling the Fuel Problem.

"Synthetic coal" gives some promise of settling the fuel problem for a long time to come. Fears for the exhaustion of the coal deposits, of their combination for raising the price or for any condition concerning them which depends for its efficacy on the local character of the deposits and the consequent facility in controlling a monopoly—may be dismissed, if large practical tests show anything like what the laboratory results and experimental trials have borne out. Every peat bog becomes a potential coal mine.

"Synthetic coal," as its name implies, is a fuel, made by compounding the essential elements of coal. It is the invention of G. M. Randall, M. D. The fuel is of the briquette order, otherwise waste material being compressed and sold in the form of a brick, but there is an important difference in the details of manufacture which makes a new principle in combustion for commercial purposes. Most of the briquette forms of fuel only utilize waste forms of other fuels, which are intrinsically of a high value as fuel, though unavailable in the form of dust, or small particles, which is the usual starting point.

The new fuel has, in addition, the principle concerned in the burning of acetylene gas and utilizes the calorific properties of lime or calcium during the combustion. The composition of the fuel, which may or may not be ultimately in the form of briquettes, is made up of peat, bituminous pitch, petroleum, calcium and a few other ingredients, mixed in proportions which are a part of the patent specification and found to be best suited for the ends aimed at. It is a mixture and not a compound, none of the elements in its composition changing their nature till the moment of combustion. Then, in addition to the normal burning of the bituminous ingredients, there is a generation of calcium carbide, which, changing at once to acetylene gas, is at once consumed. The resulting acetylene flame, which is thus a constant feature, is much the largest component of the mixture, the others serving mainly as a cement, with incidental aid in combustion, excepting the elements relied on to produce the acetylene. Not all the peat is available, there being in many places phosphorus, silicon, sulphur and alluvial debris, in proportions that put them out of the question. The first three elements named produce corroding acids during combustion, which would impair the plant and the alluvial debris would add so materially to the ash product as to make certain peats of little value in actual use. A rough survey, however, of the United States, shows 16 states possessing peat, bogs entirely suitable for the new fuel, and there is little question that suitable peat would be found distributed almost universally on careful examination—not in every swamp, but somewhere in every considerable district.

The advantages, as enumerated by the inventor, are many. Economy is one, there being a greater number of heat units per ton than in any of the commercial fuels. Indeed, the product has a peculiar value in permitting of a scale of combustibility from that of low bituminous coal to cannon coal, as one would elect for practical reasons, whether in the utilization of existing plants, the character of the local peat supply, or other factors that might govern. The residual ash is 60 per cent. less than that of any bituminous coal. There is no dust in handling. There are no deleterious gases during combustion, or at least escaping, as, on account of the principle of the acetylene combustion, the gases usually escaping and becoming a danger either as a poison to organic life, or as an explosive agent, are consumed. The greater resulting calorific intensity ensures higher boiler efficiency. The fuel is not deteriorated by atmospheric conditions, nor does it deteriorate from age. Experiments show that it may be immersed under water for months without impairing its efficiency. The fire permits of "banking," which is a valuable quality in any fuel. Thus far the uses and availability of "synthetic fuel" have been carefully tested in the laboratory and have had a very thorough test, practically, though in a small way, in a fire engine, a multiple and a pottery manufacturing and in domestic stoves. The company is about to erect a plant on a large scale in eastern Massachusetts, using a bog to contain suitable peat as a main source of supply.
